Southerner Tells Part In Rights March

Marin Seminary Student Finds Little Sympathy

By ELLEN BRY

A southerner returned to his studies today at Golden Gate Baptist Seminary at Strawberry after marching last week with the thousands who demonstrated in Montgomery, Ala., for civil rights.

Student Anthony J. Vos heard shouts from other southerners of "Nigger go home" and "look, there's a white Nigger," as he joined in the conclusion of the march from Selma on Thursday.

He talked to his parents, the pastor who married him and his wife, his brother, and friends with whom he grew up. He found himself almost alone in his convictions for integration.

'BEAUTIFUL CAPITOL'

Vos arrived in Montgomery Wednesday, equipped with a sleeping bag in which he slept that night in a field made gooey by rain. The next day he marched with others, six and eight abreast, to the capitol.

"It's a beautiful capitol. It's white and it glistens as nice as any building I've ever seen," But Vos noted that over it flew a Confederate battle flag and the Alabama state flag. No American flag was flying, "Except the ones carried by marchers."

Vos found no other Southern Baptist among the marchers.

"I went as a Southern Baptist because . . . I think that Southern Baptist churches should be integrated," he said.

STUDENT DONATIONS

He did not go as an official emissary of the seminary, but his trip was paid for "unofficially" by 15 of the 25 staff and faculty members there and by student donations.

The Southern Baptist Convention, of which the seminary is a part, has not taken a strong civil rights stand.

Vos attended segregated elementary, junior high and high schools in Shreveport, La., his home. Louisiana College in Pineville, from which he was graduated, was segregated.

The conviction had grown in the south that segregation was

Word Awaited On Students Dixie March

Professors and students who donated to a fund used to send a Golden Gate Baptist Seminary student to join civil rights marchers in Montgomery, Ala., now are awaiting the reaction of southern church members.

"We expect some difficulty," said LeRoy Moore, professor of systematic theology and historical theology at the seminary at Strawberry.

Seminary president Harold K. Graves said he had received "mixed reaction — some unfavorable, but more favorable."

"We wouldn't think of taking any official position on this," he said of the seminary. "We wouldn't think of pitting any one institution representing all thoughts of the Baptist faith, against the denomination.

"But an individual . . . will not be censored."

The Southern Baptist Convention which controls the seminary through trustees, has its membership strength primarily in the south. Half of the 32 trustees are from Southern states.

Fifteen of the 25 professors and staff of the seminary and some of the 277 students donated money to send Anthony J. Vos to Montgomery to complete the march from Selma on Thursday.

Vos said in a class discussion that he would join the march if he had the money. James W. McClendon, professor of the philosophy of religion, and Moore helped find the funds.

The position of the seminarians may be discussed at the denomination's annual convention in Dallas in June. At last year's convention in Atlantic City, the Southern Baptist Convention rejected a strongly worded civil resolution for a less definite one.

DYANA LYNN APEL
Object of search

DIDN'T COME HOME

Search Launched For Girl, 8

About 40 searchers, led by sheriff's officers, today combed the Larkspur-Kentfield area for 8-year-old Dyana Lynn Apel, missing since 4:30 p.m. yesterday.

The girl, daughter of Mrs. Sharon Sapia of 110 Diablo Drive, Kentfield, was last seen then at the home of a friend, Jane Iffila, at 38 Bayo Vista Drive in the Murray Park section of Larkspur.

She left to return home, about a 10-minute walk, and has not been seen since.

Dyana has run away or been missing five times previously.

When she did not arrive home, the mother and grandmother, Mrs. Madge Patrick of 225 Canal Street, San Rafael, searched the neighborhood. Their search was fruitless. At 8:15 p.m., Mrs. Sapia called the sheriff's office.

Several sheriff's patrol units began a search at once. At midnight, all units going off duty were instead directed to continue the search.

Bloodhounds of reserve Sgt. Michael McLean of the sheriff's office were called but rain ended their usefulness.

By noon today, the search — headed by Sheriff's Capt. Sidney Stinson — involved about 40 officers and volunteers. Undersheriff Eugene Meyer said a house-to-house search was being conducted, with emphasis also on basements and parked vehicles.

Only last Dec. 6 the girl and her brother, Brian, aged 3, were found after an eight-hour search, fast asleep under their own front porch.

The missing girl was described as four feet tall, weighing 57 pounds, of slim build and light complexion. She was wearing a long red coat, blue-orange striped dress, and blue tennis shoes with orange laces, officers said.

Sheriff's officers said the sheriff's mounted posse might also be called into the search this afternoon.

Saigon Suicide Embassy Bomb Kills Two Yanks

SAIGON (UPI) — A Viet Cong suicide squadron bombed the U.S. Embassy today with an automobile load of TNT, killing at least 17 persons and injuring 150 others. Massive retaliation against the Hanoi Regime seemed a certainty.

The explosion of 200 to 250 pounds of TNT killed at least two Americans, one a woman, and 15 Vietnamese. Twenty Americans were hurt so seriously they were being flown to a U.S. Air Force hospital in the Philippines for emergency treatment.

The State Department in Washington said its latest casualty figures were 13 dead and 183 wounded. It listed two Americans and 11 Vietnamese dead, 7 Americans seriously injured, 35 Vietnamese seriously injured; 47 Americans with lesser injuries and 93 Vietnamese with lesser injuries.

Deputy U.S. Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson was one of the victims. He suffered a scalp wound and emerged from the rubble of the embassy with blood streaming down his face.

The death toll could be even higher. Conflicting reports said several terrorists were blown to bits when their carload of TNT exploded after a gun battle with Vietnamese police and U.S. Marine guards in front of the embassy.

Less than four hours later, 40 U.S. and South Vietnamese bombers destroyed a North Vietnamese airbase at Dong Hoi, 65 miles north of the border, in the first attack on an enemy air base of the Vietnamese war. It was not in retaliation for the embassy bombing, officials said, but retribution is expected to be swift.

There was heavier loss of life in previous terrorist attacks against Americans in Viet nam. But the attack on the embassy—described as murder—was a direct affront to the United States.

President Johnson was informed immediately. He was to discuss the attack today with Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara and Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, who flew to Washington this weekend to discuss the course of the war.

Previous terror attacks led directly to U.S. retaliatory

Gov. Wallace Listens To Rights Requests

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Civil rights leaders emerged today from a conference with Gov. George C. Wallace and said they were hopeful the governor would help resolve Alabama's bitter racial struggle.

"It is too early to say whether it was a fruitful meeting," said the Rev. Joseph E. Lowery of Birmingham, spokesman for the 15 persons who met with Wallace for an hour and 20 minutes.

Wallace had no immediate comment.

Lowery said the governor received the group cordially. It was the first time that Wallace had met with a civil rights group.

Lowery said Wallace promised careful consideration of their request. They gave him a petition asking his leadership in establishing biracial communications; removal of the state poll tax, and appointment of Negroes to state jobs, including the state patrol.

Several members of the delegation are officials of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which is headed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. He launched a Negro voter drive in Alabama 10 weeks ago.

King was in Detroit today attending the funeral of Mrs.

Gov. Brown Planning Third Term Sessions

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today he planned periodic meetings with Democratic party officials to discuss his third-term plans.

The governor, who has said privately he is a candidate for another term, insisted at his weekly news conference he won't make a formal announcement now.

Cost Of Living Holds Steady

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs held steady in February, the first time in six months there has not been an increase, the Labor Department reported today.

Higher prices for women's clothing, poultry, potatoes and consumer services were balanced off by decreases in prices for automobiles, gasoline, telephone service and eggs, leaving the consumer price index at 108.9.

The index, based on 1957-59 prices, showed it cost $10.89 in February to buy typical items worth $10 in the base period.

Three-City Highway 17 Plan Opposed

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today declared itself against a Highway 17 route to West Marin that would lead through San Rafael, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen made the motion to be forwarded to the planning department of the State Division of Highways, now studying possible freeway routes.

His motion said the board favors a route starting north of Puerto Suello Hill or else two parkways, one possibly leading through San Rafael-Fairfax link, and one starting north of Puerto Suello.

Last week the board asked County Public Works Director Donald R. Frost to report on Board Orders Clearing Up Mistakes In Voters Rolls

By GILES BIXLER

"A tremendous number of mistakes" in Marin County's voter registration rolls was alleged today as the board of supervisors urged action to clear up confusion resulting from automation of voter registration.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said he has had mistakes in the rolls pointed out to him "time after time in connection with the upcoming election in San Rafael."

County Clerk George H. Gnoss said he was "completely at the mercy of the IBM machines" in assuring accuracy of the voter registration rolls.

"I have no control. I just tell them the program we want," he said.

The board's proposal for solution was hiring of an IBM systems analyst.

Gnoss said, however, he firmly believes the rolls are within one per cent of accuracy and will be improved "as more accurate and extensive programming is undertaken."

Leydecker urged the matter be given "top priority . . . with each election that passes we've

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Priest Killer To Be Paroled

SAN LUIS OBISPO (AP)—After serving 43 years behind bars for the kidnap-killing of a priest, 86-year-old William Hightower is to be paroled under supervision for the rest of his life.

Hightower

Hightower, who has spent the latter part of his imprisonment in the minimum security California Men's Colony, will be freed in May to live in Los Angeles.

He was convicted of the murder of Father Patrick Heslin of Colma, and sentenced to life in prison in 1921.

Eight days later a former Clovis baker—Hightower—led police to a shallow grave in the sands along remote San Mateo County coast.

He said a woman told him something valuable was buried there.

Heslin's body—the skull crushed and shot twice—was uncovered.

Gemini Flight Scheduled Earlier

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Astronaut Edward White may become the first American to take a personal peek into space when he and fellow Gemini pilot James McDivitt make a four-day voyage into orbit late this spring.

White

Also, informed sources said today, the flight—which would set a U.S. space endurance record—is set for a blast-off at Cape Kennedy in June, about one month ahead of schedule.

Officially, the federal space agency's current plans are much more modest. As far as public announcements are concerned, the McDivitt-White mission is set for sometime after July 1, and the "personal look at space" is an experiment awaitinf a flight beyond that.

McDivitt

However, the Gemini program is paying little attention to the "official" schedule. The stinging defeat administered by the Russian "space walk" feat of March 18 and the success of the Virgil Grissom-John Young Gemini inaugural five days later have put the project on a now and apparently faster track.

Arrests Made In Gem Robbery

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Three persons about to board a plane have been arrested in connection with a $510,000 gem robbery at a Wilshire Boulevard jewelry salon.

D'Allesandro

Police booked the trio—two men and a woman—on suspicion of armed robbery yesterday, but reported that they recovered none of the jewels taken Saturday from the Laykin et Cie jewelry concession of the I. Magnin store.

Officers identified the suspects as Gary P. D'Allesandro, 31, Marshall R. Lurie, 28, and Lynn Jenkins, 27, all of New York.

Police said store employees, poring over mug shots, identified the two men as having been in the store several days before the robbery.

Bombing Report

BONN, Germany (AP)—A bomb exploded Saturday night at the home of John D. Tinny, the U.S. consul at Benghazi, Libya, a U.S. Embassy spokesman said today. No one was hurt. The spokesman said he had no further information on the bombing.

Facing New Strike

NEW YORK (UPI)—Seven major New York City newspapers with a combined daily circulation of 4.5 million and their 18,500 employees face a strike at 2 a.m. tomorrow barring a contract agreement with the printers union.

Flood Kills 24

LOURENCO MARQUES, Mozambique (AP)—The Mosambique government said today that 24 persons were killed and about 2,000 were made homeless by floods which have swept the far northern coastal zone of the Portuguese East African territory for a week.

Secret Cuba Ferry

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Cuban exiles have established a secret ferry service to lift fellow refugees off Fidel Castro's island. Gervasio Rivero, coordinator of FAYCA, said, "We have made many trips to Cuba and returned with refugees."

Unruh Says He's Behind Gov. Brown

SANTA ROSA (AP)—Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh has reaffirmed a pledge to support Edmund G. Brown if Brown seeks a third term as governor.

Unruh told the Sonoma County Democratic Central Committee in Santa Rosa yesterday he expects Brown to announce within the next few days his intention to run.

"As soon as this happens it is my intent to immediately pledge my support," Unruh said.

Brown said later he intends "to make no announcement about my future plans until later this year."

Brown said he appreciated the speaker's expression of confidence and "will always welcome the support of Speaker Unruh."

Unruh said politically famished Republicans are fanning inconsequential differences between the chief executive ad the legislature.

The speaker said he was announcing his intention to support Brown to remove any possibliity of a confrontation between him and Brown.

"This is consistent with my contention since last November," Unruh said, "that I would under no circumstances be a candidate against him."

Health Plan Control Bill Is Gaining

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Health plans in California would have to register with the attorney general's office under a bill approved by the Assembly Ways and Means Committee.

Assemblyman John T. Knox, D-Richmond, the bill's author, said yesterday "a number of" health plans "are victimizing a number of people, particularly older people." He said his bill is supported by major health plans such as Blue Cross, the California Physicians Service and the Kaiser Plan.

New Campus Forecast For Presidio

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Army Presidio of San Francisco may be shut down as a military installation and a new University of California campus placed there, it was reported today.

The San Francisco Examiner said in a copyrighted story from Washington that the proposal was discussed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Gov. Brown in the capitol last week.

The Examiner said McNamara is considering the Presidio as one of the military installations "to be closed in the near future."

The story also said McNamara and Brown "reached agreement that serious consideration would be given to transforming the Presidio into a beautiful, impressive, parklike San Francisco campus for UC."

Voting-Rights Bill Substitution Slated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr. said today he will offer a substitute for President Johnson's voting - rights bill.

Ervin, a North Carolina Democrat, called the administration measure both cockeyed and unconstitutional.

Still being drafted, the substitute as tentatively outlined by Ervin would provide for the appointment of federal registrars in areas where the President certifies to a finding of racial discrimination in violation of the 15th Amendment.

But, Ervin emphasized in an interview, the presidential certification would be subject to judicial review. States or counties would have a chance to contest the finding in court before the appointment of registrars.

Ervin said he will try to win acceptance of the substitute by the Senate Judiciary Committee, of which he is a member. If he fails there, he said, he will carry the fight to the Senate floor.

Assembly Group Passes Tough Weapon Law

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Ways and Means Committee has approved legislation to toughen the state concealable weapon registration law.

The bill by Assemblyman Gordon H. Winton, D-Merced, would make it a misdemeanor to furnish a false birth date on registration papers that must be filled out when the gun is purchased.

Commander of the Marin County Squadron of the Sons of the American Legion is Richard Dahl.

House Committee Will Probe Klan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities voted unanimously today to conduct a searching investigation into the activities of the Ku Klux Klan.

Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., said the committee's preliminary study indicated "that shocking crimes are carried out by highly secret action groups within the klans."

These groups, Willis said, are known as "knockoff squads" or "holy terrors."

Willis also announced that the committee had instructed him to go on with his preliminary inquiry into activities of the Black Muslims, the American Nazi party and the Minute Men.

The committee said its decision to throw the full light of a congressional investigation of the Klan was based on three factors:

Its staff's preliminary study "clearly indicated the Klan activities are such that investigation is called for."

Statements by federal officials indicating that Klan members have been involved "in a number of recent murders and other unconstitutional acts of violence and terrorism."

President Johnson's appeal last Friday in which "he indicated support for congressional investigation of the klans as an aid to enactment of remedial legislation."

Willis had called the committee into closed session today, acting, as he said, "as soon as possible" after Johnson suggested an investigation.

Anti-Trespass Bill Introduced

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Incidents such as the student demonstrations at the University of California in Berkeley are the target of a four-bill package of anti-trespass legislation introduced by Sen. Robert J. Lagomarsino, R-Ojai.

The bills would specify that university regents may establish regulations for university property and make any violation a misdemeanor. It also would be a misdemeanor for a person to refuse to leave university property without legal cause after being ordered to by school officials.

Lagomarsino said yesterday the bills would make it a misdemeanor for a person to enter university property despite orders to stay away, and provide that a person who fails to comply with university property regulations would be subject to misdemeanor charges.

San Rafael Ballots Being Mailed Today

Sample ballots for the April 12 municipal and schools election were to be mailed today to 12,800 voters living within the city limits of San Rafael, according to City Clerk W. C. Cornwell.

The clerk and his assistants are also preparing some 10,000 sample ballots to be mailed tomorrow to registered voters within the San Rafael elementary and high school districts outside the city.

A total of 45 precincts has been set up for the balloting, with 34 of them within city limits, Cornwell said.

Most city residents will vote on mayor and council contests plus ballot measures involving the proposed city finance officer, making the city clerk appointive instead of elective, and city housing for senior citizens. They will also vote on elementary school bonds and tax rate, plus board of education contests.

A few city residents, however, live in the Dixie Elementary School District, so will not vote on the bond and tax rate questions.

Residents of San Rafael High and Elementary School districts outside city limits will vote only on the school measures and board of education contests.

Thus, four different ballots have been prepared.

The school districts are paying 40 per cent of the cost of the election, City Mgr. Dan E. Andersen said.

damaged the democratic process."

"No machine can think and there are very few people who can think with machines. These people are systems analysts and we need one," said Chairman Peter H. Behr.

However, said Behr, hiring a systems analyst would have to wait until budget time. He asked that County Administrator Alan Bruce prepare a full report on the reorganization of the elections and data processing departments and hiring of a systems analyst.

The board agreed with Behr, and asked Bruce to have a report ready in six weeks, recognizing that, as Behr put it, "he is in 'round-the-clock sessions on the budget. We can't allow the wheels of government to grind to a halt."

Clifford S. Lund, chairman of the county offices committee of the 1964 grand jury which urged the departments be reorganized, said the main problem was "lack of direction in bringing the two departments (elections and data processing) together to draw up a program."

"It's most important that somebody take the helm," Lund said.

Sanitary Group Meets All But One Requirement

The Novato Sanitary District has met all requirements of the State Water Pollution Control Board except one, Charles Joseph, engineer-manager, last night told the board of directors.

The one requirement is the by-pass of storm water during heavy rains at the Novato and Ignatio treatment plants. A master plan being prepared by Jenks and Jenks of Palo Alto is expected to deal with this, Joseph said.

The board authorized Joseph to investigate purchase of land from Robert McClelland of 495 Olive Avenue for expansion of the Novato plant.

April 5, 19, and 22 were selected for meeting dates next month.

Marin Rites Set For Slain Worker

Students from Tamalpais and Redwood high schools will sing freedom songs at a memorial service for Mrs. Viola Gregg Liuzzo, slain Detroit civil rights worker, at 8 p.m. today at the First Presbyterian Church, San Rafael.

The service is sponsored by the Marin County Council of Churches.

Rabbi Morton Hoffman of Congregation Rodef Sholom, San Rafael, has been added to the list of speakers who will participate, said Rev. James E. Symon, council of churches secretary.

Judge Continues Annex Hearing

Decision by Judge Samuel W. Gardiner of Marin Superior Court on application of George Leo Zaro and Alcan Marin Ltd. for an order halting annexation proceedings by the City of Mill Valley was continued indefinitely yesterday.

Briefs on the issue, involving the 137-acre tideland-Alto Strip, had been presented by S. J. Hugh Allen, representing Zaro, and Leland H. Jordan, city attorney for Mill Valley, but Judge Gardiner said more study is necessary.

Viola Gregg Liuzzo, white mother of five and victim of an assassin's gunfire on an Alabama highway after she joined a march to the state capital.

In a funeral "as private as possible under the circumstances," mourners overflowed Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic church.

Among the mourners were U.S. Dist. Atty. Lawrence Gubow, representing President Johnson; King; James Farmer, chairman of the Congress of Racial Equality; and Roy Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Also present were Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union, and James R. Hoffa, president of the Teamsters Union. Anthony James Liuzzo, husband of the slain woman, is a business agent for the teamsters.

Mrs. Liuzzo was slain after having taken part in a right to vote march from Selma to Montgomery, Ala.

TV Set Stolen In San Rafael

David Edward Silva of 12 Elaine Avenue, San Rafael, complained to police that a television worth $180 was stolen from his apartment between 7:45 a.m. and 7 p.m. yesterday

Police said a sliding glass door had been left unlocked.

Cash amounting to $30 and tools worth $10 were reported stolen yesterday from the premises of B and W Auto Wreckers at 77 Hoag Avenue, San Rafael.

Los Angeles Woman Jailed On Check Plea

Sybil Mae Morgan, 34, was sentenced to 60 days in county jail yesterday in Marin Superior Court on her guilty plea to passing worthless checks in San Rafael last December.

She passed worthless checks for $86.79 and $55.50 at Marcus Shop for Men and Boys, 1130 Fourth Street, on Dec. 18-19, and a $22.21 check at Mode O'Day, 1109 Fourth Street, on Dec. 19. She resides in Lynwood, Los Angeles County.

Picking Groceries

William Grant, representing the Easton Assn. of San Francisco, will speak on ways to advise selection of groceries by housewives at a meeting of the Marin chapter, American Assn. of Retired Persons at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in the First Methodist Church, San Rafael.

Tire, Wheel Stolen

Terrance Caffarel today told Larkspur police a spare tire and wheel had been taken from his station wagon, parked outside his home at 105 Baltimore Avenue. He set the loss at $100.

FISH STORY: NOW HE'LL CLEAN WEEDS

The fishing was good for a 10-year-old boy in Mill Valley late yesterday, but like many another fisherman, he had to throw back his catch.

Mrs. Melanie Kliewe of 45 Fern Avenue telephoned police at 4:10 p.m. to say a boy was fishing in her gold fish pond.

Sure enough, a policeman found the boy dangling a hook in the pond. He'd caught some, too.

Warning about such things as fishing licenses, restricted waters, etc., the officer ordered him to throw back the fish and sentenced him to clean the weeds out of Mrs. Kliefe's yard on Saturday.

ROUTE

possibility of a county study of freeway routes, preparatory to taking a position.

Frost said today the time and expense of making a study now would be too great.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker said he would never vote for a freeway through San Anselmo and Fairfax.

"Amen," said Kettenhofen.

Kettenhofen, who said he had been waiting a year to make his motion, said a full freeway would destroy populated areas.

Supervisor Thomas T. Storer said he favored a route on the ridge above San Rafael. Supervisor William Gnoss suggested an over-the-hill extension of Manuel Freitas Parkway.

VISIT

not right, from small things that "sound funny now."

"I would have good, fine toys at Christmas and I would see Negro kids with hoops from barrels and broken-down skates," Vos says in his soft, southern way.

In college he went with other students to preach in jail and the charity hospital.

"I would speak to Negroes as men. I found they had needs, they were people, they had thoughts.

"I believe the Negro is being prevented from getting an education in the south. They build them fine schools — but the teachers!"

He visited his parents in Shreveport after the march.

"My mother's always been proud of me for entering the ministry. . . . But this (joining the march) didn't set right with her," he said.

His father understood better, "though this was contrary to my upbringing. I believe he was even proud of me."

His brother, a naval officer stationed in New Orleans, "implied he was more or less surprised I was on the march."

The pastor who married him to his wife, Pat, was not enthusiastic, saying no one could be a pastor in the south if he backs integration.

Vos was asked to speak at a local church, but when the pastor found his subject would be civil rights, the invitation was withdrawn.

Old friends he visited showed a certain "coldness" when they found he was for integration.

Vos knows that from some southerners "there may be some hate," as a result of his joining the march. But "there may be some love there," he hopes.

He will graduate April 29 from the seminary and would like to be a pastor in California.

"I feel that the brotherhood of man is taught throughout the scripture . . . we've got to make definite stands," he said.

Judge Suspended After Arson Case

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — The California Supreme Court suspended Maurice M. Hardeman yesterday as municipal judge in the San Jose-Milpitas-Alviso Judicial District.

Hardeman recently was convicted of conspiracy to commit arson and obstruct justice in the fire destruction of his mountain cabin.

College Leader

Lyle L. Hoover of 8 Diego Drive, San Rafael, is one of six local volunteers in the Marin County and San Francisco area who will serve as a district leader for the special gift division of the 1965 Monmouth College, Ill., alumni fund program. The campaign target is $150,000.

SAIGON

raids against North Viet Nam. Since then the raids have grown in scope and frequency —and have moved ever closer to the Communist capital of Hanoi.

The dead in the embassy attack included two Americans—a woman killed in the explosion and a man who died later in the U.S. Navy Hospital in Saigon. The embassy itself was a mass of rubble from the bomb which broke windows for hundreds of yards around and tore a gaping hole in a concrete sidewalk.

The blast tore the northeast corner of the embassy building, smashed most of the first floor and broke nearly every window.

The explosion sent a fireball and a 300-foot pillar of smoke shooting high above the roof of the six story structure. Heavy steel grills on the windows were blown back through the walls and across rooms. The consular section was destroyed. Tiles from buildings many yards away were tossed like confetti.

The dead and wounded lay in tangled heaps in the wreckage.

More than 100 injured were taken to Saigon Hospital and more than 50 to the American Navy hospital. At least 20 Americans were reported so badly wounded they were being flown to Clark Air Base in the Philippines.

Despite his injuries, Deputy Ambassador Johnson met immediately with top civilian and military aides to discuss retaliation. In a statement he said the bombing was another example of the Viet Cong's readiness to attack civilians. The Vietnamese government called the attack an act of savagery—not an act of war, but an act of murder.

The heavy bomb exploded in a car driven to the embassy by a terrorist who planned the attack without apparent regard for his own life. Another Communist followed the car on a motorscooter.

The driver of the car was killed at the scene by police. The man on the motorscooter was captured after a running gunbattle in which three policemen were wounded.

The bomb exploded at 10:49 a.m.

Skies Overcast, More Rain Due

Most of Marin County was overcast today following a moderate ration of rain last night and this morning, and the Weather Bureau forecast for more rain tonight.

Heaviest rainfall for the 24 hours ending 8 a.m. today was recorded at Mill Valley with .3 of an inch.

Other 8 a.m. rainfall figures were: Novato, .08 of an inch; San Anselmo, .07; Sausalito, Larkspur, Chevy Chase and Ross, all .03; Belvedere, .02.

At noon today the 24-hour reading in San Rafael was .03 of an inch.

Juveniles Booked In Damage To Building

San Rafael Police Chief Charles J. Chiesa reported today that three juveniles who caused $750 damage in the Masonic Building on Lootens Place on March 19 have been booked at Juvenile Hall.

Two of them, said Chiesa, have admitted other offences including denting the hood and roof of a car parked off Third Street the same day.

Coins Are Taken From Church Rack

Two dollars in coins was taken from a pamphlet rack in the Mill Valley Episcopal Church of Our Saviour, 10 Old Mill Street, during the night, Rev. D. Murray Hammond, rector, reported to police today.

The burglar also entered the church office, broke open a steel cabinet, but took nothing else.

Kingston Trio Aide Sues For Divorce

The manager of the Kingston Trio, Frank Werber of Ross, yesterday filed suit for divorce against his wife, Carel, in Marin Superior Court. He alleges cruelty.

Werber also asks court approval of a property settlement, to be submitted later. The couple wed on Sept. 25, 1961, in Sausalito. They separated Feb. 25, 1963.

In Korea

First Lt. Michael L. Conners, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Conners of 14 Bolinas Avenue, San Anselmo, has assumed command of an Air Force advisory unit to the Republic of Korea at Pyong Taek, Korea.

OBITUARIES

Ralph A. Moore Succumbs

Ralph A. Moore, 69, of Napa, who operated Moore's Good Candies in San Rafael for more than 10 years in the 1930s and '40s, died yesterday in a Napa hospital after a long illness.

A native of Illinois, Moore came to San Rafael in 1929. He and his wife, Thelma G. Moore, started the candy business in 1932. They sold the firm and moved to Napa about 1946, and had since managed real estate holdings there.

Surviving are his wife; a son, Ralph W. Moore of Vallejo; three brothers, Presley E., Melvin and Walter Moore, and a sister, Mrs. Nina Aikens, all of Los Angeles, and two granddaughters.

Funeral will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Inurnment will be private.

MRS. CAMPBELL

The "cookie lady" of San Anselmo Avenue died yesterday.

Death claimed 82-year-old Mrs. Laura M. Campbell of 1617 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, in a local hospital after a short illness.

She was known as the "cookie lady" to children of her neighborhood because she liked to bake cookies for them.

She had lived alone since her husband Will, a lithographer, died in 1949. She had been a Marin County resident for 30 years.

Mrs. Campbell is survived by a sister, Mrs. Alyce E. Lannoy of Redwood City.

Funeral will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Chapel of the Hills, San Anselmo. After a private inurnment, her ashes will be buried in St. Helena Public Cemetery.

PHYLLIS SENTER

Funeral for Mrs. Phyllis L. Senter, 57, sister of Dr. Maurice E. Leonard of Mill Valley, was held Friday in Menlo Park. She died Wednesday in Palo Alto Hospital.

Born in Dublin, Ireland, she was the wife of Dr. Walter P. Senter and had lived at Menlo Park for 21 years. Mrs. Senter was a graduate of University of California and a member of the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority.

Also surviving her are her mother, Mrs. John V. Leonard of San Francisco; a son, Walter P. Senter II of Palo Alto, and a daughter, Ruth Senter of Menlo Park.

C. H. WINSTON JR.

Funeral for Carl H. Winston Jr. 34, of 800 Pine Lane, Terra Linda, killed early yesterday when his car overturned on the north shore of Lake Tahoe, will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Inurnment will be private.

The Highway Patrol said Winston, a copy editor of the San Francisco News-Call Bulletin, lost control of his car on Highway 28. He had spent the weekend at Squaw Valley.

A native of New York, Winston joined the News-Call Bulletin after working for King Features Syndicate, the Salinas Californian and the Oakland Tribune. He was a member of the San Francisco Newspaper Guild.

Surviving him are his wife, Helen; three sons, Robert H., Carl H III and William; a daughter, Diana; his parents, Carl H. Winston Sr. of Mill Valley, caption writer for the News-Call Bulletin, and Mrs. Howard Cadwell, and a brother, Ronald Winston of New York.

W. BUTTERWORTH

William T. Butterworth, 69, a painter, 409 Drake Avenue, Apt. 9, Marin City, died yesterday in a local rest home after a long illness.

He was born in San Francisco March 30, 1895.

He is survived by his wife, Carmalita; five sons, Theodore of Larkspur, William T. Jr. of Corte Madera, Robert of Alto, Francis P. of Larkspur and John S. of the home; four daughters, Rose of the home, Mrs. James Nolze and Mrs. Tony Arcy of Pomona, and Mrs. Bobbie Gilley of Pacifica, San Mateo County, Mrs. Hazel Barry and Mrs. Angela Lynch of San Francisco and Mrs. Violet Brady of San Mateo, and 12 grandchildren.

Funeral will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Chapel of Marin Funeral Home in Novato. Burial will be in Mount Tamalpais Cemetery, San Rafael.

MAN BEHIND RED TAG DAYS

Walter R. Zurcher, as chairman of the business development committee of the San Rafael Chamber of Commerce, is the "big wheel" for Red Tag Days, city-wide semi-annual sale which will be Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Zurcher points to Red Tag Days banner and says his San Rafael Toy Shop will be among the dozens of stores offering special bargain during the event—most of which will stay open to 9 p.m. or later on Friday. A special section of tomorrow's Independent-Journal will carry Red Tag Days advertising.

Assembly Group Seeks Open Regents Sessions

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Education Committee has approved a constitutional amendment to open University of California regents meetings to the press and public unless the topic were personnel matters or business affecting national security.

Assemblyman Nicholas C. Petris, D-Oakland, the bill's author, said yesterday he also would agree to executive discussion of prospective gifts to the university and sessions on granting honorary degrees. He also said recent student demonstrations on the Berkeley campus hadn't sparked his bill.

He said his measure was part of a program to expand the state's Brown Act, which requires open meetings for public agencies.

Ed Salzman, Capitol correspondent of the Oakland Tribune, testified that he covered regents meetings for 2½ years for the Tribune and the Berkeley Gazette.

He said most of his time was spent outside while the regents met in executive session.

SACRAMENTO SUMMARY

By U. P. INTERNATIONAL

THE SENATE

Bills introduced:

SB861-64 Lagomarsino —Package designed to tighten state laws covering criminal trespass to prevent repetitions of the so-called filthy speech movement at the University of California.

SB867 Short — Regulates sale of pre-need funeral plans.

SB868 Short — Requires travel agents to be licensed.

THE ASSEMBLY

Adopts resolution asking Congress for speedy enactment of President Johnson's voting rights bill.

Bill to outlaw professional petition circulators in initiative, referendum and recall campaigns is temporarily dropped.

Deletes "legislative veto" clause from administration gas tax bill.

Measures introduced:

AB2084 Williamson —Prohibits use of gas price display signs at service stations.

AB2077 Burton — Bans commercial advertising in movie theaters.

AB2098 Badham — Bans commercial fishing around Catalina Island except for lobster and abalone.

AB2090-93 Mulford — Package to aid local law enforcement.

AB2086 Greene — Authorizes year around high school.

Labor Council Backs Bettini

The Marin County Labor Council's political education committee has endorsed C. Paul Bettini, president of the San Rafael Board of Education, for mayor of San Rafael.

Also endorsed were contractor Joseph R. Filippo, who seeks a seat on the San Rafael City Council, and passage of a $700,000 bond issue and $500,000 state loan authorization for the San Anselmo School District. There was no endorsement of San Rafael Elmentary School District's bond and tax rate proposals.

The San Rafael election is scheduled April 12, while the San Anselmo bond issue will be voted on in the county-wide April 20 school trustee elections.

U.S. Temperatures

NEW YORK (UPI) — Lowest temperature report to the U. S. Weather Bureau this morning, excluding Alaska and Hawaii, was 7 below zero at International Falls, Minn. Highest reported yesterday was 87 at McAllen and Larado, both in Texas.

WOMEN VOTERS GROUP INVITES MEN TO JOIN

Men soon can be Women Voters in Marin.

Mrs. William C. Anderson of San Anselmo, president of the Central Marin League of Women Voters, said this will be accomplished by creation of associate memberships.

"We have found in the past," she explained, "that many men in Marin County have felt a strong identification with the work of the league."

Seattle Campus Likes Co-Ed Dormitories

SEATTLE (UPI) — The University of Washington will have its third co-educational dormitory beginning with fall quarter, 1965.

Women students will occupy the top three floors of Lander Hall, currently an all-male residence, and men students will have quarters on the bottom four floors.

Former Nazi Colonel Gets 10 Life Terms

ESSEN, Germany (AP) — A sentence of 10 life prison terms has been given former SS Col. Albert Rapp. It is one of the severest penalties given a Nazi war criminal by a West German court.

Rapp was convicted of personally participating in 10 mass executions in the town of Klinzy. The court yesterday imposed the maximum sentence for each case.

State Senate Passes Cough Syrup Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Senate has approved a bill to require a doctor's prescription for the purchase of cough syrup containing codeine.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. Alan Short, D-Stockton, passed 30-3 yesterday and was forwarded to the Assembly. Under the present law, cough syrup may be sold to any person who registers his name with a pharmacist.

DICK NOLAN

Unwelcome Mat

I GUESS California once had a tradition of hospitality.

It flourished during the days when the Spanish and the Mexicans (in their turn) ruled the land.

The Spanish and the Mexicans were hospitable to each other.

After that, niente.

The Gringo invaders arrived.

They were not only inhospitable to the Mexicans, they were predatory.

And from this they progressed to being inhospitable to each other.

Which brings us to the present in general, and the San Francisco present in particular.

Line from an old Western movie: "Welcome, stranger! Light and sit a spell." And move on in the morning.

Cliche fragments, same source: "This is McBaron water and McBaron land, and Mr. McBaron, he don't want no lousy nesters squattin' here."

"We got a nice little town here, and we jest don't cotton to your kind."

"As marshal, I'm givin' you till sundown to saddle up and move on."

▼

The Western is folklore, and there is truth in folklore. The persistent legend of Western inhospitableness lives today.

Especially today, because the friction factor rises with the population curve — and, ai, do we have people!

The Japanese, an unusually adaptable people, grease the friction with politeness.

But the Western way is just the opposite. People coming? Make it hot for the varmints. Drive 'em out. Discourage more of them from coming.

Old San Franciscan, touchy and grouchy, builds a way of life on an old Service motto, gently translated as "I got mine; nuts to you, Mac."

If he got his hands on a modest hill home, years ago, he fiercely lays claim to all the air rights for miles around.

His real estate is considered to include his own 25-foot lot and all the blue sky in all directions.

Hence the screams of anger whenever somebody builds a tallish structure to house, graagh, people.

Lately I made the unforgivable error of saying some kind words about Marincello, a proposed new city in Marin.

The propaganda campaign against this project was at once moved into full throttle.

It was "reported," for example, that Dr. Martin Meyerson, the eminent expert in environmental planning, had "Withdrawn" from the project.

In point of fact, Meyerson had been hired as a consultant, had completed his assignment as scheduled, and had come to the termination of his contract quite routinely.

After having done what looks to me like an excellent job of fitting a small city complex to its hilly terrain.

In discussing projects like Marincello, you have to have a starting point.

Either you are pro-people, or else you are anti-people.

If you are against the very notion of Marin's being populated, then there is not much point in discussing the merits and demerits of a vast undertaking like Marincello.

I am pro-people.

From that base, I have to conclude that the Marincello planners have done extremely well in designing a place for people to live.

I find it rather amusing that a lot of the howls about Marincello are coming from the more vocal elements in Sausalito.

The Marincello land, which is presently owned by Gulf Oil Corporation, lies several hills away from Sausalito, on the other side of Highway 101.

The site is in a hidden valley.

BUT THE SAUSALITO howlers are evidently alarmed at the dreadful thought of somebody else using "their" highway and "their" bridge.

There is also much pious talk about "preserving the Golden Gate headland."

It makes no dent in their hard heads to note that the headland is already dedicated for park purposes, and that Marincello is no more on the headland than Sausalito is.

▼

Nor does it serve any useful purpose that the proposed development is fringed all about with park preserve, while the site of Marincello has been privately owned land ever since deeds became fashionable in these parts.

But from Sausalito!

Sausalito—overbuilt, overpriced, overcrowded, utterly unplanned Sausalito, home of some of the unsightliest housing since Hooverville.

After looking at some of Sausalito's latter day developments, and comparing them with the Marincello plan, one might be tempted to put the whole hassel down to civic jealousy.

But I'm afraid it's simpler than that. It's the tradition of the Old West bursting through.

"I got mine, Mac."

Supervisors Act To Air Views On Bay

Because the Marin County Board of Supervisors has been unsuccessful in airing its view on the bill that would create a San Francisco Bay Conservation Commission, the board decided to invite Marin legislators to the Civic Center to let them know how it stands.

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney went to Sacramento last Wednesday to speak before the Senate Committee on Governmental Efficiency regarding the bill, but he never got a chance to be heard.

Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker moved that the board write Sen. Luther Gibson of Vallejo, chairman of the committee, voicing its disappointment in "firm terms."

Supervisors agreed to this and asked that Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley, both of San Rafael, be asked to attend a Marin hearing on the bill within the next two weeks.

At that time the board's endorsement of the bill can be emphasized and citizens may express their views on it.

Maloney told the board today that only six persons spoke in favor of the bill Wednesday and the hearing lasted just an hour even though there were 500 attending.

"They just aren't doing their job," Leydecker said of the Senate committee.

Crash Victim's Condition Poor

A Martinez mother and son remained under intensive care at Marin General Hospital today, suffering from inuries they received Sunday night when their car went off Highway 101 north of Novato.

Mrs. Marlene Heirsche, 25, the driver, was reported in poor condition with fractures of the skull, right hip, right arm and both legs.

Her son, David, 7, remained on the critical list, with head injuries and many cuts and bruises.

Sports Shop Burglary Guilty Plea Entered

Bernard Duane Montbriand, 27, pleaded guilty yesterday in Marin Superior Court to burglary of Western Sports Shop, 902 Third Street, San Rafael on Feb. 19. Judgment is scheduled April 26.

Montbriand, 1111 Fourth Street, San Rafael, was arrested by San Rafael police after the store's burglar alarm sounded and Montbriand was spotted leaving the store and running along Third Street.

Rafferty Might Lose His Probers

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Education Committee has approved a bill to take away the team of investigators from Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty.

The investigators check teacher personnel, including cases where instructors' credentials are taken away by the State Board of Education for law violations.

Labor Has Peace

BONN (UPI) — Labor peace in West Germany was almost complete during 1964, the Federal Statistical Office reported. Of about 22 million employed, only 5,629 workers went on strike in 34 factories, causing a loss of 16,711 working man days.

Drunk Case Probes Question Of Sickness

Ross psychiatrist Bernard L. Diamond played a key role yesterday in the biggest drunk trial any Californian has had in a long time.

The trial was that of Thomas F. Budd, 55, of Oakland golf caddy who was arrested last November for being drunk in a public place.

It was the 53rd time Budd had been so charged since he was 18. Like most similar cases, it would have gone by with little notice, had Budd's attorney not decided to make it a test case.

The attorney, James B. Schnake, decided to try to prove that Section 647F of the California Penal Code, under which Budd was arrested, should be repealed on grounds it treats a disease as a crime.

Schnake got the American Civil Liberties Union interested in the case. When it came to trial yesterday in Oakland Municipal Court, Budd was defended by Schnake's partner, Richard Rader, and by ACLU attorney Marshall W. Krause.

The attorneys called two expert witnesses: Dr. Diamond, psychiatrist and professor of criminology and law at University of California in Berkeley, and Dr. David S. Rubsamen, a researcher in the field of alcoholism who holds medical and law degrees.

Dr. Diamond traced the man's life, telling how domestic problems led to his running away from home in his teens. Budd, he said, started drinking when he was 18 and was an alcoholic by the time he was 22.

"He's sick," the psychiatrist concluded.

Dr. Rubsamen agreed and said putting a sick man in jail does nothing to solve his problem.

In spite of prosecution protests against the unusual testimony, Judge Zook Sutton allowed its admission for "limited use" and continued the case to 9 a.m. Friday.

UNANIMOUS DECISION

Supervisors Agree On Dinner For Fusselman

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today unanimously agreed to sponsor a testimonial dinner for former Supervisor William D. Fusselman.

Supervisor William Gnoss suggested it and Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen immediately asked for the floor. However, Chairman Peter H. Behr broke in to say that he thought a testimonial was long past due and the entire board should be behind it.

Ketenhofen, who defeated Fusselman at the polls last fall, then took the floor with a hard look at Behr. "When you ask to speak first, it's hard to do it," he said.

Kettenhofen, who defeated Fused to move to endorse the testimonial and thought Fusselman very deserving of it for his 22 years of service on the board. Gnoss said the dinner would probably be late in May.

Board Discusses Prize For Best History Of County

A prize for the best history of Marin County was discussed by the Marin County Board of Supervisors today as a means of getting a job done that has been left untouched since 1880.

Last week Supervisor Thomas T. Storer suggested the history. Today Chairman Peter H. Behr suggested the county offer a "substantial" prize.

Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen said he did not think the county should put up the money but would encourage civic groups to contribute.

Behr said a prize, however, would provide the best means of getting a fine history. He suggested that authorities on California history be enlisted to serve as judges.

The matter will be further discussed when the board delves into the budget for the next fiscal year.

Professors Might Get Pay Restored

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Assembly Education Committee has voted to restore pay cuts suffered by top state college professors and thus took an opposite stand from that of the Senate Finance Committee, which killed a similar bill two weeks ago.

The unanimous action taken yesterday would give professors back money they lost when their paychecks were cut by college trustees to avoid a budget deficit. The bill now goes to the Assembly Ways and Means Committee.

Seaman On Leave

Radar Seaman Robert Lee Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Avie J. Webb, 390 Marion Avenue, Mill Valley, is home on leave after attending advanced radar school at the Fleet Anti-Air Warfare Training Center, Dam Neck, Va. Webb will report for duty aboard the guided missile destroyer Mahan after his leave is over.

Steel Workers' Demands Studied

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Basic steel negotiators today studied ways to convince the United Steelworkers Union to slim down its contract demands.

Industry sources said the scope of the union's economic demands presented yesterday appeared to be "more expensive" than the recent union settlement with the can industry.

The scope of the union's economic demands upon basic steel were not revealed.

Bales Gets Poison Creek Test Results

Test results on the death of 900 young salmon in Nicasio Creek were turned over today to Dist. Atty. Bruce Bales, but he made no announcement by noon as to whether he will file charges against Paul Defibau for allegedly dumping chemicals in the water.

Meanwhile, county sanitation officials were puzzled by the sudden appearance of a five-gallon tin of toxic ethyl alcohol at Defibau's former home. It held three gallons of the fluid.

Sanitation director William L. Desmond said the alcohol, found yesterday, was not there last week when health officials first became alarmed over the presence of chemicals in the water.

The alcohol posed no new threat to the creek water, he said, but was considered dangerous to leave sitting around.

Chemist Defibau admitted dumping harmless dye in the creek when he moved from a home near Nicasio, but denied putting other chemicals there. The case came to light when 900 young salmon were found dead in the creek shortly after Defibau moved to San Francisco. Families in the area have been warned not to drink well or creek water.

'Marine Life' Talk

Gordon Chan, biology teacher at Sir Francis Drake High School and instructor in marine biology at College of Marin Bolinas Marine Laboratory, will speak on "Marine Life" at 8 p.m. Friday at the College of Marin chemistry building. The talk is sponsored by Marin Audubon Society.

Two Escapers In Custody

Two of three escapees from San Quentin Prison's Chamberlain Creek conservation camp in Mendocino County were apprehended in Los Angeles last night.

In custody are Richard J. Rector, 31, and Robert W. Autrey, 34, who were missing from the 10 p.m. prisoner count Saturday.

James W. L. Park, associate warden, said the two were being questioned on the whereabouts of the third escapee, Robert F. Butler, 26.

Taking Of Cockels Brings $15 Fine

John Howard Hamilton of San Francisco was fined $15 in West Marin Justice Court last week for taking cockels from Tomales Bay without a fishing license.

The fine was not imposed for taking cockels out of season as reported in the Independent-Journal last week. Warden Russell Ild of the Dept. of Fish and Game said there is no season on cockels. Licenses are required for gathering them.

Brown Outlines Farm Labor System Plans

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Gov. Brown outlined today a program he said would revolutionize the California farm labor system within the next four to five years.

The governor's program is centered on providing acceptable housing for domestic farm laborers.

During his weekly news conference, Brown said Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz had not as yet made a firm commitment on the use of foreign laborers to help in the harvest of California crops.

But, Brown added, "The trip to California by Secretary Wirtz put the real problem into focus — the need for family housing."

Brown said he planned to ask the legislature to create a State Housing Agency to aid in the farm labor program.

The lawmakers turned down a similar request two years ago.

"This time," the chief executive added, "I believe we have the necessary legislative support for approval of the bill."

The governor's labor program also calls for creation of a farm housing task force to develop a firm plan to meet housing needs.

And, Brown has asked for immediate construction of 10 migrant service centers and 1,000 farm worker housing units. The units will be built with a $3.5 million federal grant.

Once the housing program is completed, Brown predicted domestic workers would accept the farm jobs, thus eliminating the need for foreign labor, cutting down on California unemployment and slashing sharply current welfare costs.

"This will revolutionize our farm labor system," he added.

The governor said Wirtz had agreed to permit several hundred Japanese workers to be used in pressed farm areas, but had made no other commitments.

Agency Action On Alto City Is Defended

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission cannot predict what will happen to the proposed "City of Alto" property, commission member Hugh G. Marshant said today.

Marchant was questioned on the future annexation of the 1,626 acres bounded by Tiburon, Corte Madera and Mill Valley, which was rejected for incorporation last week, while addressing a breakfast meeting of the Marin County Real Estate Board today.

A commercial strip west of Highway 101 has already been approved by the commission for annexation to Mill Valley, but Marchant said it had no way of knowing what disposition will be made of other lands proposed for enclusion in Marin's 12th city.

"Presumably the most logical solution would be for Mill Valley to annex everything west of the highway and for Tiburon to take in everything east of the highway," he said.

Marchant defended the action of the commission in rejecting the petition for a city of Alto. He said Consideration had to be given to land usage, topography, growth, and probable development of adjacent incorporated and unincorporated areas for the next 10 years.

"Whatever action we take in situations of this kind is bound to have an effect on property values over a long period of time. I just hope LAFC does not become a threat to Marin development - but a solution to some of its growing problems," he said.

Queried as to what might happen if Marincello were proposed for incorporation, Marchant said this eventuality is still too far away to be considered.

Bay Conservation Bill Is Backed

A second bus load of Marin County residents will leave San Rafael tomorrow for Sacramento to show their approval of State Sen. J. Eugene McAteer's Bay Conservation Bill at the continued hearing.

Organizer William F. Upton of Bayside Acres said today he expects this trip to receive more support than that last week. The party will leave the Greyhound bus depot at 7:45 a.m.

Marin Men Jailed In Dope Purchase Case

Two San Rafael men were in county jail today after allegedly passing a forged prescription for dangerous drugs at a Kentfield pharmacy late yesterday.

Sheriff's deputies and Larkspur police, who arrested them, said one of the men also tried to obtain nembutal at Corte Madera and Greenbrae pharmacies.

Frederick Kitzmiller, 24, unemployed resident of 56 Clayton Street, was booked on a charge of forging a prescription. His companion, Ronald Romaine Wormuth, 24, machinist helper of 830 B Street, was booked for illegal possession of narcotics prescription blanks and narcotic paraphernalia.

Each was held in lieu of $276 bail.

Officers said one of the suspects entered Woodlands Pharmacy, 739 College Avenue, Kentfield, about 5:10 p.m. yesterday and presented a prescription on a San Rafael doctor's blank for 25 1½-grain capsules of Nembutal.

The prescription was filled. The buyer paid $2.15 and departed, deputies said, before the pharmacist realized the prescription was unsigned.

A salesman, Warren C. Moser of 777 Plaza Linda, Novato, who was also in the store, voiced his suspicions, officers said.

The pharmacy checked with the doctor, learned he had issued no such prescription, then called the sheriff's office. Meanwhile, Moser followed the suspects to a car and obtained the vehicle's license number.

A little later, Daniel Schlichtmann, clerk at Bon Air Pharmacy, 160 Bon Air Shopping Center, Larkspur, told Larkspur police one of the suspects attempted to obtain a prescription for drugs there. Schlichtmann was suspicious and was checking authenticity of the prescription by telephone when the man left.

Larkspur police followed the car from the Bon Air Pharmacy arresting Fitzmiller and Wormuth on Wolfe Grade. Wormuth had an eye-dropper and other narcotics-use items in his possession, officers said.

Also recovered, they added, was a pad of about 18 prescription blanks believed taken from a medical bag owned by a San Rafael doctor, Donald C. Barbour, in a Feb. 16 burglary of his car in San Rafael.

Officers said investigation disclosed one of the men also attempted to cash a $20 check and fill a prescription for Nembutal at Corte Madera Pharmacy, 18 Tamalpais Drive, yesterday afternoon.

Indoor Sports Officers Named

Mrs. Benton Day of Mill Valley will be installed as first vice president of the Indoor Sports at 7 p.m. April 3 at Nave Lanes in Novato.

The Independent-Journal on Friday incorrectly reported her name as Mrs. Benjamin Day.

Installing officers will be Robert Thomas of San Francisco, national president of Indoor Sports, and Louie Fiechert of Sacramento, president of the organization's District 4.

Checks Stolen

Denelle Benjamin of 491 Molino Avenue, Mill Valley, told police Saturday, that while her car was parked at the Municipal Golf Clubhouse during a dance, someone smashed the wing window and stole her purse which contained two $3 checks. Left on the seat was Miss Benjamin's wallet containing $20.

Man Arrested In Arson Case

Roney Dewel Roberson Jr., 34, was arrested last night by sheriff's officers on a charge of arson in a Feb. 28 fire at his Valley Garage in Forest Knolls.

Roberson, of Ramona Avenue, remained in county jail at noon today in lieu of $1,100 bail.

His arrest by Sheriff's Inspector A. V. Menjou followed a lengthy investigation which included sending flamable materials found at the fire site to state labratories in Sacramento.

The complaint alleges Roberson "wilfully and maliciously" started the fire. Firemen said flames were burning in three parts of the garage on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard when they arrived. Damage was estimated at $12,000 to equipment and materials inside, and $5,000 to the building.

Roberson, who leased the building from John Helms of San Rafael, reported at time of the fire that he received anonymous phone calls last September in which a male voice threatened to set the garage on fire.

Someone broke a rear window in the garage only a week before the fire, he had reported.

Penalty on conviction of arson is one to 10 years in prison.

Hanger Authorized

The Air Force has authorized construction of a hangar for reserve forces at Hamilton Air Force Base, costing $990,000, Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) announced today. The contract on the project is expected to be awarded within two months.

Two Intoxicated Drivers Fined

Hubert Vincent Stratton, 35, of Rohnert Park, Sonoma County, was fined $220 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested March 19 on Highway 101 by San Rafael police.

Salvatore Joseph Allegra, 45, of 43 Almenar Drive, San Rafael, was also fined $220 for drunken driving. California Highway patrolmen arrested him March 11.

University Student

Two Marin County students, Sandra Jane Monson of Fairfax and Ronald E. Grady of San Anselmo, are among 127 students from California enrolled at Idaho State University in Pocatello this semester.

Couple Not In Tavern

The scuffle between Fred Smothers, 32, and his wife, Betty, of 5 Rocca Drive, Fairfax, did not take place at the Knott Inn Tavern, 300 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, as was reported yesterday in the Independent-Journal.

The fight, in which Mrs. Smothers claimed her husband broke her jaw, occurred across the street from the tavern, according to police.

The two were in the bar prior to the fight but were asked to leave, said Harold Matteucci, proprietor.

Smothers was arrested by San Anselmo police on charges of battery and violation of parole. He was to plead to the battery charge in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

Thieves Get $5,000 From Motel Safe

Thieves broke into the Bermuda Palms Motel at 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, early yesterday, forced open a safe and made off with $5,000 in cash, according to the owner.

The raiders also stole a portable television worth $187 from the private office of motel owner, Irving B. Litchfield, leaving behind the tools used in the theft.

San Rafael Patrolman Gerald R. Souza said today Litchfield reported the burlars at 10:40 a.m. yesterday and it is believed to have occurred sometime after Sunday midnight.

Entry was gained through a window pried from an alley off Francisco Boulevard and the safe was moved from an office to another room in the building —possibly to avoid detection in breaking it open, said police.

Souza said wrecking tools and sledge hammers were left on the scene but nobody was disturbed by noise during the break-in.

Tomales High Plan Approved

Plans for improving the main building of Tomales High School were approved last night by the board of trustees at a special meeting at the school.

Architect George Quesada said that he thought his plans could be carried out with the amount budgeted. The board hopes to go to bid in June, with completion before school starts in the fall, said Supt. Anthony Matulich.

Voters in the district had approved $175,000 for both the main building repair and construction of a new shop building. An estimate from Rap Construction Co. of Santa Rosa set the main building work alone at $177,000.

Quesada told the board, however, that Rapp's estimate "could be 30 to 40 per cent off."

The board named trustees John M. Mattos, Roy A. Parks and Richard Velloza Jr. as a committee to discuss salaries with the faculty salary committee.

Viet Human Torch

SAIGON (AP)—South Viet Nam's official news agency reported today that a Buddhist monk burned himself to death on Sunday in protest against the Viet Cong. The incident was the first burning of a Buddhist monk reported since late 1963, when a number of monks burned themselves in protest against the Ngo Dinh Diem regime.

Neighbors Protest Against Family Move

By BRUCE COLEMAN

The NAGS know what they don't want.

They don't want Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Keldsen and family to move away from 630 Northern Avenue, Tamalpais Valley.

So at 6:30 p.m. yesterday 14 adults, 11 children and three or four dogs protested the Keldsen's proposed move in June to Loma Verde. They marched around the Keldsens' lawn carrying signs: "We protest," "Loma Verde is For the Birdies," "Pogo A No-Go-Go" (Pogo is the Keldsens' dog) and "Old Gourmets Never Move, They Just Get Fried."

The protesters, all members of the Northern Avenue Gourmet Society (NAGS) sang "Don't Go Stan and Mary." Teen-ager Tom Adams played the bagpipes. Then the group moved into the Keldsens house and staged a sit-in.

Finally, according to Mrs. Jane Healey of 635 Northern Avenue, everyone moved to the home of Kurt Helmstaedter at 627 Northern Avenue to partake of a splendid dinner. It was ham and pot luck, said Mrs. Healey, since it had to be prepared on the spur of the moment.

The Keldsens, with youngsters Kaaren, Kristine, Kenny and Billy, have lived in Tamalpais Valley about 13 years.

"They are a wonderful family and are members of the NAGS. You hear about people picketing to get people to move. We picketed to get them to stay," said Mrs. Healey.

The Keldsens still plan to move, but Mrs. Healey said they will probably comply with one of the marcher's signs which read: "Come Back to Eat."

Sausalito Woman Finds Old Skull In Her Garden

Mrs. Marta Christal of Sausalito was working in her garden yesterday when she unearthed something which she said looked like an old drain pipe.

"Then," she said, "I saw the cranial markings where the lobes would be joined and I recognized it as a skull. I called the police."

Today, after a visit by Asst. County Coroner William C. Bradley, Mrs. Christal believes the skull may be part of an old Indian graveyard. Bradley probed around a bit and found other bones, said the skull appears to be "over 100 years old" and suggested the possibility of an Indian burial ground.

The skull and bones were left in place at the Christal home at 108 Caledonia Street pending arrival of archaeological classes from University of California at Berkeley.

Mrs. Christal, an antique dealer in Sausalito, said she was working with her hands to cut away some old bamboo which she felt was a fire hazard when she saw the skull. She described it as terra cotta in color.

"Mr. Bradley told me, 'Don't bother about cleaning out the rest of the bamboo — the U.C. people will be doing it for you,'" she said.

Shed Near Center Hit By Second Fire

The second blaze in a week at a shed near the Civic Center caused $450 worth of damage yesterday to building and property used by the Little League.

Marin County Fire Department was called at 3:22 p.m. A spokesman today said the cause is still being invetigated. Some baseball equipment inside the five-by-five foot wooden shed just off Madison Avenue was ruined.

Unification Bill Hearing Slated

A bill, which would give the local electorate more leeway in the size of a proposed school unification, will get a hearing next Monday before the Assembly Committee on Education in Sacramento.

Assemblyman William T. Bagley, R-San Rafael, author of AB 771, said the bill was scheduled for hearing yesterday, but the Assembly committee did not get around to it because of a full agenda.

The San Rafael assemblyman said the hearing next Monday is set for 3:45 in the Capitol.

Novato Car Stolen

Mrs. Mavis J. Martin, 43, of 7 Dusel Court, Novato, reported to police Saturday that someone took her Ford 1963 model cream colored hardtop convertible from in front of her home between 9:30 p.m. Friday and 2:45 a.m. Saturday. The car's license was DPK-341, according to police.

PG&E's Cummesky Retires Thursday

C. Mike Cummesky will retire from Pacific Gas and Electric Co. Thursday as current holder of the longest term of service in the San Rafael office.

Cummesky, 65, Marin County dealers representative, started his PG&E career in March, 1922, as a counter clerk in the office then at Fourth and E streets. In 1930 he transferred to the sales department "because the opportunities were better."

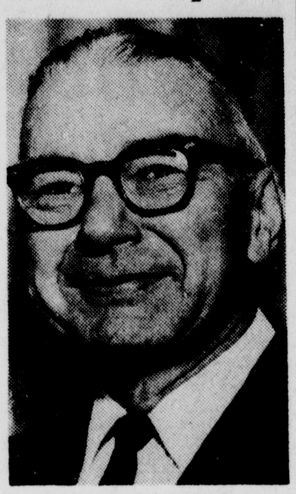

"Those were the days when we sold light bulbs, heaters and water heaters," he said. "We even sold PG&E stock 'over the counter'—it was not yet listed on the New York Stock Exchange. We worked on straight commission and some of us made more than the division manager—who then decided to get out and sell, too."

In 1943, the company went out of the retail selling field and Cummesky's job became a promotional one for gas and electric products sold through dealers. He has been in the same position for the last 22 years.

"I had many chances to transfer to other areas but turned them all down to stay in Marin. After awhile the company got tired of asking me," he said.

Cummesky came to the county in December, 1921, from Tell City, Ind., where he was born, attended grade and high schools and business college. His first position (and only employment besides PG&E) was as assistant cashier in the Tell City Citizens National Bank. His wife, the former Nettie Kleeman, is also a native of Tell City, where they were married in 1920.

"We came west to look up my grandfather who was with Hercules Powder Co. and whom I had not seen since I was two years old. We have lived in Marin right from the start and built our present house at 9 West Street, San Rafael, in 1932," Cummesky recounted.

C. MIKE CUMMESKY

He and his wife have one son, Earl, a Marin County sheriff's deputy; a daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Ghiringhelli, 11 grandchildren and one great-grandson. Their oldest daughter, Mrs. Jeanette Smith, died three years ago.

Cummesky was a trustee of the San Rafael Elks Lodge for five years.

He said his exact retirement plans are uncertain, but he and his wife intend to buy a camper and are contemplating a trip to Alaska. They will continue to live in San Rafael.

Marris C. Jackson Jr. is master of Hamilton Lodge 751, Free and Accepted Masons.

Banker Says Tax Policy Is A Drag

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The nation's tax structure, designed in depression and amplified to meet the needs of wartime financing, is now serving as a serious drag on the economy's performance, a San Francisco bank president has stated.

"If the country is to guarantee adequate job opportunities for a growing labor force, a long range program of federal tax reduction may well be required."

So said Emmett G. Solomon, president of Crocker-Citizens National Bank, in an address before leading business and labor leaders, congressional officials and members of the president's cabinet who assembled in Washington for a day long discussion of federal tax policy.

Solomon joined Dr. Paul McCracken, who was a member of the council of economic advisers during the Eisenhower administration, in indicting our tax system as a major obstacle to the achievement of a full employment economy.

Steeply progressive tax rates once were believed to be a safeguard against economic stagnation," he said, "but rates which are too steep and too progressive may very well induce it."

At the present time high tax rates siphon off too much private purchasing power as the economy expands, he argued.

Portland Dock Bonds Purchased

SAN FRANCISCO — Crocker-Citizens National Bank headed an investigating group with Wells Fargo Bank which bid successfully today for $2.5 million in $5,000 denomination bonds issued by the City of Portland Public Dock Commission.

Purchased at a net interest cost to the commission of 2.94 per cent, the bonds were reoffered to investors with 2-¾ per sent to 5 per cent coupons to yield 2.35 per cent in 1967 out to 3 per cent in 1980.

Other members of the group were Drexel and Company, Paribas Corporation, E. F. Hutton and Company, Inc., Reinholdt and Gardner, Shelby Cullom Davis and Company, Seattle Trust and savings Bank, William E. Pollock and Company, Inc., Hannaford and Talbot, and Burnham and Company.

Earnings Up For Air Lines

MANILA—Philippine Air Lines recorded net 1964 earnings of $1,272,624 (4,4963,233 pesos, at the current exchange ratio of 3.90 pesos to one U.S. dollar). This compared to $718,989 (2,-804,067 pesos) earnings for the previous year.

The figures were reported by Benigno P. Toda Jr., Philippine Air Lines board chairman and chief executive officer, at the company's annual stockholders meeting in Manila.

Philippine Air Lines operates OC-8 manjet service between San Francisco, Manila and Hong Kong via Honolulu.

Two Nominated For TWA Board

NEW YORK—Charles H. Sommer, president o fthe Monsanto Company, St. Louis, and Dr. Charles N. Kimball, president of Midwest Research Institute, Kansas City, have been nominated directors of Trans World Airlines, according to the Company's proxy statement which will be mailed with the annual report to shareholders today.

They will succeed Sidney Maestre, chairman of the Mercantile Trust Co., St. Louis, and TWA director since 1939, and Clifford F. Hood, former president of the U. S. Steel Corp.

New Hub Beauty Salon Opens; Sausalito Firm Aids Gemini

A new beauty salon—Hunter-Hall Hair Styling — has been opened at 60 Red Hill Avenue, San Anselmo. The business is headed by Norman Dana of Mill Valley (formerly of London).

He describes the salon's decor as "having a Victorian touch with a Spanish flair, giving an early California feeling." Design and furnishings feature open beam ceiling, red carpets, gold chairs, crystal chandeliers, antique tables and a theatrically lighted make-up area.

Hunter-Hall maintains eight hair stylists, a make-up artist and a manicurist.

PRIME ELECTRIC POWER used in launching astronauts Virgil Grissom and John Young into space last week was provided by two of those 500 kilowatt Caterpillar generator sets processed by A. G. Schoonmaker and Co., Inc., Sausalito, with the regular utility power held in reserve as a standby in case they didn't work. They did, and probably will be used again and again.

BANK OF AMERICA APPOINTMENTS: Neil C. O. Brogger of San Rafael, vice president and Northern California division head of the equipment finance and leasing department, has been moved up to vice president and assistant representative in the New York office. He joined the bank after graduating from Stanford University in 1928 and has acquired an extensive background in all phases of financing. He has held his last post since 1963 and was also president of Small Business Enterprises, a small business financing subsidiary of the bank.

Brogger

Richard Lee Martin of the Mill Valley branch has been promoted to assistant cashier and operations officer in the San Rafael office. He is a resident of Novato and a member of the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce.

New assistant cashier at the Northgate Shopping Center branch is Joe Lee Braun, formerly with the Buri Buri office in South San Francisco. A San Jose State College graduate, he joined the bank in 1963.

Ouellet Gears

TWO MILL VALLEY MEN have been elected officers at the San Francisco headquarters of Morris Plan of California. Charles E. Ouellet, in charge of data processing, has been made assistant vice president. Gordon A. Gears in the insurance division has been elected an assistant secretary.

LUCAS VALLEY DAIRY celebrated its 32nd anniversary yesterday. Originally established to process milk from the Grady family's local dairy farm in Lucas Valley, the plant has remained at its present San Rafael site at Second and Ida Streets, although enlarged several times to keep up with its business growth.

In June, 1962, it was purchased by Petaluma Cooperative Creamery, but the Gradys have continued to direct its operations, with Robert P. Grady, son of the founder Frank P. Grady, serving as general manager.

KEN McKENZIE of McKenzie's Children's Bootery, San Rafael returned from Boston last week, where he had gone as one of eight selectees in the country by Green Shoe Manufacturing Co. (maker of Stride Rite shoes) to help design the new fall line. He reports that these advisors were successful in eliminating the recent pointed toe influence in children's footwear and getting manufacturers to swing over to round toes.

W. K. KITCHEN of Santa Venetia has been elected assistant secretary of the Canners League of California.

CALIFORNIA TURKEY BBQ

1 small onion, grated	¾ cup Sweet Vermouth
1 clove garlic, grated	1 tbsp lemon juice
½ cup oil	2 tsp Worcestershire sauce
½ cup catsup	1 tsp oregano
1 cup water	Salt to taste

Cook onion and garlic gently 3 minutes and add remaining ingredients. Simmer, uncovered about 15 minutes. Use as a basting sauce while barbecuing Jolly turkey. Allow 15 minutes per pound over medium coals for a tender, juicy turkey. Left-over sauce keeps well in covered jar in refrigerator. Delicious as a basting sauce for oven-broiled meat or poultry.

MUSHROOM AND RICE CASSEROLE

8 tbs butter	4 tbsp chopped onion
1½ cups Uncle Ben raw rice	2 cans chicken gumbo soup
2 cans (4 oz.) mushrooms	2 cans chicken with rice soup

Melt butter, stir in rice and saute' several minutes. Combine mushrooms, including liquid, onion, soups and heat. Pour over rice and stir. Pour into 3 quart casserole, cover and bake in 350° oven 45 minutes to an hour, depending upon the depth of the casserole. This is an excellent buffet dish.

Tomales High Test On Junior Class Is Campaign Issue

Board Candidate Says Results Show Students Below Average

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Tests given at Tomales High School last fall showing that juniors were only achieving at sophmore level have become an issue in the April 20 school trustee election.

Candidate Gordon Pusser of Marshall has declared that the test results were not only below state and national averages but also revealed that students capable of doing only sixth grade work were in the same class and using the same books as students capable of college level work.

Dr. Gerald Redwine, consulting psychologist from Sonoma State College who serves Tomales, agreed today that Pusser has a "very good point."

Redwine said he has presented the problem to the trustees "and they are working on it."

He said it is beyond his field to recommend what the solution should be.

The test was given after the first month of school to 11th graders. According to the publishers of the California Achievement Test, 11th graders should have an average score of 11.1 in the first month of school, 11.2 in the second month and so on.

At Tomales, the average result was 10.7, with a range from 7.3 to 14.8

However, this result was above the average anticipated. Based in intelligence quotient, the class should have averaged only 9.7, Redwine said.

The psychologist said the school has done well in lifting students a whole class above their anticipated achievement level.

"It would be nice to stop there and say the school is doing a good job, but there are other problems," he said.

He tempered his remarks by saying it is difficult to draw general conclusions from testing only 40 juniors.

When he presented the report to trustees March 8, Redwine was asked about testing other classes to get a broader picture of the school's condition. He was asked if the California Achievement test could be given to sophmores.

He said the test for sophmores has a mathematics section which has proved very difficult for most students to understand and he would recommend it only for college-bound students.

Pusser, in a Political advertisement last week, charged that Redwine told the board it would not be right to give sophmores the test because they did not have the reading ability to understand it.

Redwine said today that he was referring to the troublesome mathematics section.

Here are the test results and ranges of the various categories tested (state test based on expected average of 11.1):

Reading Vocabulary, average 10.7, range 6.1-14.3; reading comprehension, average 10.5, range 6.1-14.8; total reading, average 10.7, range 7.2-14.6; arithmetic reasoning, average 11.3, range 7.2-16.5; arithmetic fundamentals, average 10.7, range 7.2-16.5; arithmetic total, average 11, range 7-16.5; mechanics in English, average 11.1, range 6.7-15.6; Spelling , average 9.9, range 6.3-15.6; total English, average 10.5, range 7.6-15.3.

Marin GOP Group Elects

William P. Hessian Jr. of Terra Linda and James A. Lill of Ross have been elected directors of the Marin Republican Council.

President Paul R. Haerle announced the two will succeed Norman B. Livermore Jr. and Roger F. Morse. Livermore resigned to devote more time to business, and Morse has moved to Washington, D.C.

Hessian is assistant sales manager for KPIX television station. At one time, he ran for the Hawaii House of Representatives, losing by 17 votes.

Lill is sales representative for International Business Machines in San Francisco.

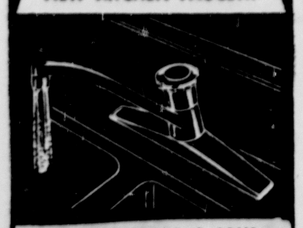

Storer To Speak To Cove Group

County Supervisor Thomas T. Storer will be main speaker at the annual meeting of the Mariner Cove Improvement Assn., at 8 p.m. April 9 at San Clemente School in Corte Madera. Neil Cummins School student Linda Marmysz will entertain residents on the accordion.

Members will elect seven directors and consider changes in the by-laws.

TIDAL WAVE WARNING CANCELLED

Police and fire departments throughout Marin were issued a warning of possible tidal wave over the county communications radio at 8:17 p.m. yesterday, on word that a major earthquake had been recorded off Alaska.

The warning was cancelled at 9:34 p.m., without alerting residents.

Earthquake Is Recorded In Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — An earthquake in the area of Alaska's Aleutian Islands was recorded on seismographs throughout the United States and in Japan last night, but military installations in the island chain said they did not feel the temblor.

Seismologists in California, Washington, Alabama, Missouri and other places outside Alaska assigned the quake an intensity varying from 7 to 7.75 on the Richter scale. The disastrous Alaska quake of March 27, 1964, was rated at 8.3

The Coast and Geodetic Survey observatory in Honolulu fixed the epicenter of the quake at 75 miles south of Rat Island in the Aleutians.

No tidal-wave alert was issued.

The quake was recorded around 9:35 p.m. EST.

Testimony Continues In Drug Suit Case

Testimony on behalf of plaintiff Allen D. Toole of Mill Valley continued today in San Francisco in his $350,000 suit against makers of an anti-cholesterol drug.

Yesterday, doctors, chemists and others appeared on the stand to back Toole's contention that the drug MER/29 permanently damaged his vision and had other adverse effects when he used it in 1960 and 1961.

Toole, 45, of 8E LaVerne Avenue, seeks damages from William S. Merrell Co. and Richardson Merrell Co., makers of the drug from April, 1960, until it was banned from use by the Food and Drug Administration in April, 1962.

Originally scheduled as a 10-day trial, the case is now expected to run longer, since the defendants have not yet taken the stand. Today was the trial's eighth day before Superior Court Judge Walter Carpeneti.

Chou Talking With Ben Bella

ALGIERS (UPI) — Premier Chou En-lai of Communist China, determined to keep Russia from participating in the next Afro-Asian summit meeting, begins two days of talks with Premier Ahmed Ben Bella of Algeria today.

Chou was flying here from Tirana, Albania, Red China's only ally among the Communist countries of Europe.

Algerian officials said he and Ben Bella planned to discuss a wide range of international questions, including Viet Nam and preparations for the Afro-Asian meeting scheduled to begin here June 29.

New Crown Prince

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Radio Mecca announced yesterday that King Faisal of Saudi Arabia named his younger brother, Prince Khaled Ibn Abdulaziz, 56, as crown prince of the oil-rich kingdom. Faisal, 60, took over as ruler last November after dethroning his elder brother.

Filthy Farms 'In Minority'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Filthy conditions for farm laborers turned up in California on last week's tour by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz are a minority situation but the whole industry must see to its elimination, the Council of California Growers insisted today.

It sent out word to tens of thousands of its members that "responsible California agriculture has been clobbered by the black sheep."

A report was dispatched to more than 26,000 members that will be sent along by allied associations until the total exceeds 40,000.

Economic Crime Bills Backed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch told a lawyer's group today he supports pending legislation to "protect California's businessmen from illegal competitors and the depredations of economic criminals."

Lynch said he gave priority to "stronger protection against economic crimes in the banking field."

In prepared remarks to the Sacramento Bar Association, Lynch supported measures to crack down on banking officials; make it a felony to bribe an officer of a financial institution; stop misuse of special bond-issuing districts; and stronger penalties for misusing construction funds.

Brothers Arrested In Theft Of Food, Liquor In Hub City

San Anselmo police yesterday arrested two brothers, aged 16 and 17, and were expected to pick up a 20-year-old man today on petty theft charges in connection with disappearance of liquor and food from the home of Mrs. Lois V. Holsten Friday.

Mrs. Holsten told police she returned home about 5 p.m. Friday at 125 Pine Street, to find a pound of bacon, a ham, a dozen eggs and four bottles of liquor were missing. A neighbor reported seeing the youths climbing a fence about two hours earlier.

Police said the two boys were sent to juvenile hall after they admitted entering the home.

After they left with the loot, police added, the boys became frightened and threw the food and bottles into garbage cans.

Next Baseball Boss: Under 65, Fine Public Image

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

CLEARWATER, Fla. (UPI)—Who's going to be the new baseball commissioner?

He's going to be a man under 65 years of age, with a judicial mind and a fine public image.

That is what the 20 major league club owners decided in a special meeting yesterday and they delegated the task of finding the man to fit that description to two outstanding baseball executives—John W. Galbreath, representing the National League and John A. Fetzer for the American League. Galbreath is president of the Pittsburgh Pirates, Fetzer of the Detroit Tigers.

They hope to come up with the answer before midnight, Oct. 31.

They have no idea who he may be.

They do know one thing — if the club owners cannot agree on a successor to Ford Frick before that time, they'll always have Frick.

Frick wanted to step down last year, but he agreed to stay on another season so the club owners would not have to hurry the selection of his successor.

Before the club owners went into a special meeting yesterday to start the long, tedious process to select his successor, they asked Frick for one more favor:

Would he stay on until they selected the new commissioner?

Frick, who is 70, agreed he would. Frick said he would stay on the job until midnight, Oct. 31. Previously he had agreed to stay on until the end of the World Series.

"And if they don't agree on a new commisioner by that time, I'll stay on the job indefinitely," Frick said, indicating he wasn't at all displeased by the prospect of keeping the job so long as the club owners wanted him.

It could be he will be on it long after that Oct. 31 deadline.

However, both Galbreath and Fetzer expressed optimism that they would be able to come up with a satisfactory candidate before that time.

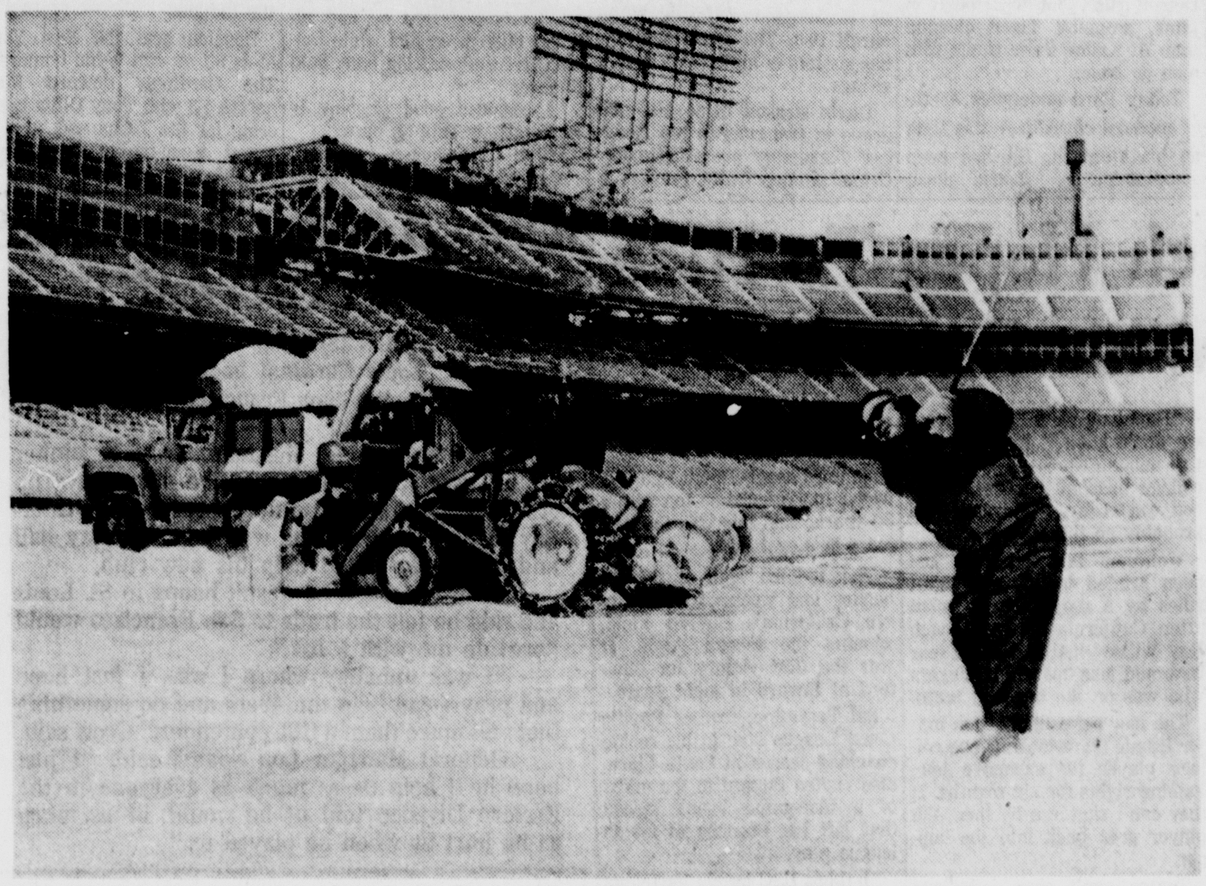

Here is the picture:

Each of the 20 major league clubs were asked to submit their candidates for commissioner in sealed envelopes, with no identification. Only 16 clubs did so but the four others still can do so.

"We haven't," said Fetzer, holding those 16 fat, light-blue envelopes in his right hand, "opened them.

"We won't for another week or ten days."

So no one, in baseball or outside of it, knows who the clubs may have nominated for the most important position in organized baseball.

LOT OF SNOW TO GREET BASEBALL SEASON

Minnesota Twins official Jim Robertson practices up on his golf as heavy snow removal equipment (background) clears snow from the Metropolitan Stadium playing field at Minneapolis-St. Paul, Minn. Ice covering on the field is between 5 and 10 inches in spots, but the grounds will have to be brought up to shape in two weeks when the 1965 baseball season gets underway. The Yankees will take on the Twins there April 12.

Angels' Bonus Baby Target For Needles

PHOENIX—Many years ago in the Klondike, a couple of lovable mountebanks of the dance halls named Wilson Mizner and Jack Kearns got together on a scheme designed to correct the gold imbalance of the territory's exchequer. As Mizner paid cash for gold dust, Kearns, a mere stripling with a full flowing pompadour head of hair, counted it. His hair was heavily pomaded but, from time to time, he would run his hand through it to flatten it.

In the course of this coiffure, of course, several hundred dollars worth of precious dust would collect. Doc Kearns would almost be a blond when he left the dance hall that night. When he would wash his hair, in a porcelain pan, he would never, of course, throw the dirty water out. It would be allowed to sit overnight until all the dust would settle in the bottom, giving a new definition to "panning for gold" and, simultaneously, giving rise, as Doc grew older, to a reverse version of the song "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

I bring all this up because, in the Angels' baseball training tour here, when an Angel regular sees Frederic Carl Reichardt combing his hair in front of a mirror, he usually yells out "Hey, Reichardt, is that dandruff or gold?"

When they spot an armored truck parked by the side of the road, they yell "Hey, Reichardt, you dropped your wallet."

THE LOS ANGELES Angels pressed a quarter of a million dollars on Rick on the strength of the fact he: (1) had played 50 Little League, 45 Babe Ruth League, 12 high school and 50 college games of baseball; (2) could run fast; (3) eat heartily; (4) play football; (5) carry a tune; (6) get a "B" in English; (7) pass a loyalty test.

Even before the Angels opened the vein, Rick Reichardt seemed to have less reason to become a major league baseball player than Luci Johnson. The son of a bone surgean, he was well into his pre-med course himself.

THE FIRST knuckle-ball he ever saw was in the pro leagues. Like a guy getting his first look at an elephant, he couldn't believe it. It seemed that, once more, baseball's gold was going to disappear faster than the stuff Doc Kearns used to rug into the goose grease. He had strength. But if strength were the criterion, Turkish wrestlers would be on the bubble-gum wrappers. He had intelligence. But the MVP Award has been won often in the past by guys who had just enough schooling to make change at a shoeshine stand.

As of this writing, Rick Reichardt (the Angels, naturally, call him "Rich" Reichardt, or "our rich relation") has gotten exactly 11 hits off major league pitching. This comes out to about twenty grand a hit if he gets hit with a train tomorrow.

HE CONTEMPLATED the ice bag on his swollen knee. "The thing is, I WANT to be a major leaguer, It's a question of pride. I don't want someone to say 'So he took the two hundred thousand dollars and lived happily ever after.'

"Basically, I'm an introvert. I don't get mad when the guys needle me. That's why it isn't so much fun for them as with the other bonus guys who get sore. I don't NEED baseball but I NEED my pride. I like good books and good art and good music. I haven't gone out on a date in three months. I like girls but I'm putting first things first."

To the rest of the guys in the locker room, their gold dust twin (whom they also call "Sparkle Plenty" and "Jingles" would seem to be putting first things second. "When I go into a town, I hunt up museums, and the symphony and the galleries. Not the girlie magazines and the juke box and the side-door joints."

WHICH MAY be a bigger first than a $200,000 bonus player making good. BASEBALL may not need him but Beethoven does. The minor leagues' loss may be the minor poets' gain. The Sporting News may have to start rating conductors and cellists.

Of course, if it all fails, Rick may have to stumble through the rest of his life under the ignominy of "Dr." in front of his name. And may have to waste his time healing the hurt instead of vice versa.

Seals Already Begin Talking About Trades

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Only one thing seemed sure today about next season's edition of the San Francisco Seals. There will be plenty of new faces on it.

Barely 11 hours after finishing out the Western Hockey League regular season, coach Bud Poile of the fifth-place Seals and coach Alf Pike of the last-place Los Angeles Blades huddled in trade talks.

Poile is believed interested in Howie Young, a solid defenseman whose mercurial temper too often puts him in the penalty box. Poile coached Young three years ago and is convinced he can handle him.

An even bigger deal and one that would give the Seals some valuable strength is the possible acquisition of defenseman-wing Pat Stapleton and wing Andy Hebenton, both of whom now play for Portland.

Both belong to Boston and the Bruins have indicated the Seals can get one or both next fall.

The Seals will not ask Boston, as they have in the past, to protect any of the players on the Seals roster from the annual draft in June.

"That includes Charlie Burns or George Swarbrick," Poile says.

In other words, Poile is willing to give up any of his players in order to get some new ones in a deal.

Poile has indicated to his boss, owner Mel Swig, that he would prefer to be general manager or coach next season, but not both. A decision was expected in a few days.

Meanwhile, final Seals statistics showed a 31-37-2 record, which landed them two points behind fourth-place Victoria. The mid-season injury to Burns, the team's best scorer, was the blow that cost them a playoff spot.

Final team statistics showed Wayne Connelly and Len Haley co-scoring leaders with 74 points, followed by Ed Panagabko and Del Topoll with 64 apiece, Burns with 63, Al Nicholson with 58, Nick Mickoski with 46 and the rookie Swarbrick 44.

Casper Is Still Top 'Unofficial' Money Winner

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. (AP) — Doug Sanders, whose bankroll was boosted by back-to-back victories in the Pensacola and Doral tournaments, is the official leading money winner on the pro golf trail.

Counting unofficial money—won in tournaments not sanctioned by the Professional Golfers Association—Billy Casper still leads the 1965 list, however.

Sanders' total over-all earnings amount to $32,302, compared with $36,029 for Casper.

The top ten, with official, unofficial and total money won through the Azalea Open:

Doug Sanders $29,158, $3,144, $32,302; Bob Charles 17,981, 1,318, 19,299; Billy Casper 16,165, 19,864, 36,029; Jack Nicklaus 14,400, 8,426, 22,826; Bruce Devlin 13,245, 1,657, 14,902; Bert Waver 12,315, 131, 12,446; Paul Harney 12,000, 683, 12,683; Rod Funseth 11,990, 2,709, 14,699; Dave Marr 11,792, 4,815, 16,607 and George Knudson 10,825, 1,849, 12,674.

Longden Wins 5,944th Race

ALBANY, Calif., (AP)—Johnny Longden aboard the favored Pelegrin overcame Emphil's Lodge's two length lead in the stretch yesterday and won the $4,000 Forest View Purse at Golden Gate Fields.

Longden rode his second winner of the day and his 5,944th career victory.

Emphil's Lodge held on for second place in the field of six topflight sprinters. Incan Chief made up ground steadily in the final quarter and came in third.

The winning time was 1:08 4-5.

The winner paid $5.20, $2.80, 2.40. Emphil's Lodge returned $2.80 and $2.60. And Incan Chief $3.40.

Champs Favored To Defend Titles

NEW YORK (AP) — If boxing championships changed hands through the force of words rather than fists, welterweight champion Emile Griffith and light heavy king Willie Pastrano would have reason to be a little shaky in their double title defense tonight at Madison Square Garden.

"He has what I want, and it's up to me to get it," says 24-year-old Jose Stable, a Cuban-born New Yorker who is gunning for Griffith's 147-pound crown.

"I'm going to knock out Pastrano somewhere between the seventh and 10th rounds," booms Jose Torres, a Puerto Rican knockout specialist who hopes his brutal power can wreck Willie's boxing brilliance.

Despite these crackling words from a pair of hungry challengers, Griffith and Pastrano remain the betting favorites in the twin header which is expected to produce the biggest gate ever at the musty, tradition-rich Garden.

Griffith, a lean, good-looking athlete who has been in 10 previous title fights and who has the distinction of having won the welterweight crown three times, is a solid 11-5 pick over Stable in the first fight, starting at 9:30 p.m. EST.

Pastrano, 29, who is hardly marked from 13½ years of ring fighting, is a closer pick — just 6-5 — over Torres, who hits with the devastating power of a sledge hammer.

If the first fight goes the limit, the second one won't start before around 10:45 p.m. and the expected sellout crowd of 18,400, paying a possible record $250,000, may not file out of the place until well after midnight.

The previous record gate at the Garden was $216,497, paid by 18,194 for the Joe Louis-Jersey Joe Walcott heavyweight battle Dec. 5, 1947.

The two 15-round bouts will be seen on closed circuit television at 86 locations throughout the United States and Canada. This will swell the proceeds, from which Pastrano is guaranteed $100,000, Griffith $70,000 and the challengers $10,000 each.

Each of the champions may get more. Pastrano is entitled to 30 per cent and Griffith to 25 per cent of the receipts, if the figures are larger than the guarantees.

Pastrano, a protege of Miami's Angelo Dundee, is quietly confident because he is sure that Torres, with all his punching power, can't knock him out.

"I've never been floored," Pastrano says. "I know I can outbox him and I've got a better chin."

The only time Willie was stopped was in London six years ago when Brian London, British heavyweight, cut him up so badly the fight had to be stopped. Pastrano never was floored. He's won 63 fights, lost 12 and drawn 8.

Torres, 28, has an impressive knockout record. He's stopped 25 opponents in winning 34 fights, drawing one and losing one — the loss to Florentino Fernandez in 1963. He kayoed Bobo Olson in the Garden last Nov. 27.

Stable, with quick hands and feet, has lost only two bouts while winning 25 and drawing one. Griffith's record includes 43 victories, five defeats and 16 knockouts. He's been stopped once.

Slimmed Down Grid Turnout

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (UPI)— Coach Ben Martin was to greet about 100 candidates today at the delayed opening of spring football practice at the Air Force Academy.

Fog and a snow-covered field delayed the first day of practice yesterday.

Martin will have only nine lettermen after the cheating scandal led to the resignation of 109 cadets including about 30 football players.

None of the nine lettermen have earned more than one letter. They include one quarterback, four halfbacks, one fullback, one tackle and two guards.

Bolin Sharp As Giant 'B' Team Beats Cubs

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)— It was only a "B" game, but Bobby Bolin's pitching was strictly grade A.

The San Francisco Giants fastballer tossed a 7-inning 4-1 win over the Chicago Cubs B team at Phoenix yesterday as he allowed but two hits.

Bolin was 6-9 as a starter last year, but may have pitched his way into the bullpen with his performance yesterday.

Manager Herman Franks commented "Bobby looked good, and our relief pitching . . . well, let's wait and see. But right now Bolin is throwing hard, and when you look at our bullpen . . ."

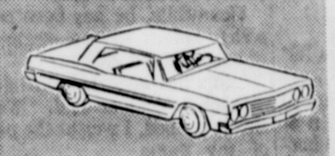

Franks claims that he has enough starting pitchers although most of his aces have been getting banged around hard this spring. Also, Dick Estelle is the only lefty among his potential starters.

But the Giants relief pitching has also been spotty this spring, except for a couple of brilliant performances by Frank Linzy.

The two hits off Bolin yesterday were made by Jimmy Stewart, who scored the cubs' only run, which was unearned.

The Giants meanwhile teed off on veteran Bob Buhl, who won 15 for the Cubs last year. Giants Chuck Hiller, Cap Peterson and Arlo Engle got to him for two hits apiece.

The Giants host the Boston Red Sox today.

Whitey Ford Is Back In Form

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Whitey Ford, who perspires only on his right side, had New York Yankee Manager Johnny Keane in a cold sweat for awhile over his work so far this spring.

It is on Ford's question-mark left shoulder that much of the Yankee hopes for a sixth straight American League baseball pennant ride. And the shoulder, which underwent surgery last winter causing the perspiration phenomenon, had been something less than impressive.

The light-hitting Los Angeles Dodgers had punished Ford for 20 hits and 16 runs over nine innings in his last two outings and you might say Keane was somewhat apprehensive as he sent Whitey out against Detroit yesterday.

But Ford, after surrendering a first inning home run to Don Wert, settled down to hurl seven strong innings and although he was the losing pitcher in the Tigers' 2-1 victory, Keane could afford a sigh of relief.

Ford gave up six hits and both Detroit runs, but was tough in jams, stopping Tiger cleanup man Al Kaline three times with men on base.

Today Ford undergoes another medical checkup — this time on his stomach. He has been complaining of gastric upset and Yankee physician Dr. Sidney Gaynor suspects diverticulitis, which is an inflammation of the intestine. The ailment, unless there is a perforation, can be treated with antibiotics.

Washington's Don Lock and Los Angeles' Tommy Davis continued their hot hitting as the Senators and Dodgers won their games.

Lock drove in four runs with a homer, two doubles and a single as Washington outlasted Pittsburgh 10-8. The outfielder now has six hits in his last six spring swings.

Davis stroked three hits and drove in two runs in the Dodgers' 7-3 victory over Baltimore. Oriole pitcher Wally Bunker, a 19-game winner last year, was belted for seven hits and five runs in just two innings.

Dean Chance worked seven scoreless innings as the Los Angeles Angels whipped their seattle farm club 6-2. Paul Schaal had two homers and Costen Shockley one for the Angels.

"I felt terrible," complained Chance later. "My arm was fine, but I didn't have my good stuff."

The Cy Young Award winner was reminded that he had allowed only three hits while fanning five and walking four. Said Chance:

"I consider good pitching is when nobody gets on base."

Three Milwaukee pitchers combined to shut out Philadelphia 5-0. Wade Blasingame, Phil Niekro and Dan Osinski hooked up for the four-hitter.

Cincinnati strafed Kansas City starter Bob Meyer for 11 hits and five runs en route to a 6-3 victory. Jim Gentile hit a two-run homer for the A's.

Cleveland bunched four runs in the seventh with three more in the ninth for a 7-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs. Chuck Hinton had a two-run homer for the Indians.

Houston beat the New York Mets 5-1 as Jim Wynn homered. The Cardinals downed Minnesota 5-2 with Tony Oliva homering for the Twins and, in a B squad seven-inning game, San Francisco downed the Cubs 4-1.

Cal's Coach Hopes To Hide Pitching Whiz From Draft

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Coach George Wolfman hopes no one notices his star sophomore hurler Andy Messersmith, who has yet to allow an earned run for the California Bears since the first varsity inning he pitched.

Messersmith has a 4-0 record with an 0.31 earned-run average and is one of the reasons the light-hitting Bears are in second place in the California Intercollegiate Baseball Association.

It's not that Wolfman has anything against Messersmith. But he'd like to see him start his junior year so no major league club could sign him until the end of next season under the new professional baseball draft rules.

"How long we'll have this kid we don't know," Wolfman told the annual Northern California college baseball coaches luncheon yesterday, "because he'll probably go this summer."

Wolfman said he had just been briefed on the new draft rules by a major league scout after California football coach Ray Willsey had expressed fear he would lose one of his players who was on the baseball team.

The new rules allow each major league team to draft one college player for exclusive bargaining rights for six months. If they can't sign him by then, the player goes back into the hopper.

Teams can't sign collegians before the end of their sophomore year and after they start a subsequent scholastic year. This fairly restricts signings to summers except in hardship cases, which need approval of the commissioner's office.

"There's a lot of false illusion around that we won't lose many players," said Wolfman, who added that the major league clubs won't save as much bonus money as they think, either.

"With the breakdown of the minor leagues you'd think the major leagues would depend on colleges," said Wolfman. "But that isn't the case because they say colleges don't play enough games, especially in the eastern parts of the country."

Wolfman's remarks followed a lunch filled with otherwise pleasant comments on the closeness of the young CIBA race.

Stanford coach Dutch Fehring, whose Indians are on top with a 3-1 mark, said this was the best team he's ever had.

The Indians split a doubleheader last weekend at Southern California's Bovard Field, winning the second game. It was the first victory for Stanford at Bovard in eight years.

Sal Taormina, former Pacific Coast League star in his rookie coaching season at Santa Clara, also visited Bovard in the midst of a four-game losing streak that left his Broncos at 2-5 in league play.

"I think USC builds its teams around that park," said Taormina, who added that a 310-foot pop fly clears the right field barrier at Bovard.

The perennial CIBA power, USC, is only 2-2 and in the CIBA fifth spot. California is in second at 3-2, UCLA third at 4-4 and UC Santa Barbara, the newest member, in fourth with 3-3. But it's a 20-game season.

JOHN DAVID CROW INKS S.F. 49ER CONTRACT

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — John David Crow, former St. Louis Cardinal back, has signed a contract with the San Francisco 49ers for the 1965 football season.

The 29-year-old Heisman Trophy winner from Texas A&M, for whom the 49ers gave up Abe Woodson, said at a news conference yesterday in San Francisco he was eager to play ball and hoping he could help his new club.

Crow conceded he wasn't happy in St. Louis and said he felt the trade to San Francisco would "provide me with a lift."

"I was unhappy where I was. I just hope and pray I can help the 49ers and do something that will make them a title contender," Crow said.

General Manager Lou Spadia said: "I just hope he'll help us as much as everyone in the Eastern Division told us he would, or as much as he hurt us when he played us."

THAT INJURY BUGABOO

Venturi Has Hopes

By CHARLES STAFFORD

CRYSTAL RIVER, Fla. (AP) — Ken Venturi, whose professional golfing career has twice been short-circuited by illness, said today he has been "working harder in the last week than I have ever worked in my life."

His goal is to overcome his latest illness—a numbness in the hands brought on by poor blood circulation — and return to the PGA golf tour with the Masters at Augusta, Ga., April 8-11.

The 33-year-old sweet swinger, the talk of the tour in the late '50s, hit rock bottom in 1962 when pneumonia and allergy turned his game sour. But in 1964, he was back in form and won the U.S. Open, the Insurance City Open and the American Golf Classic.

Then came the circulatory trouble. A biopsy was performed to measure the amount of constriction in the blood vessels, and the extent of the problem. Medication was prescribed.

"I take pills every day, all sorts of pills,' Venturi said in an interview. "I take pills to dilate the blood vessels and pills to thin the blood.

"I'm taking so many pills, I rattle when I walk."

His doctors say a cure will just be a matter of time.

Meanwhile, he has been on a strict—almost savage—regiment of exercise and golf.

"This has been a tremendous setback," Venturi said. "When this happened, I was at the peak of my game.

"It has been a case of having to rebuild my arms and my hands. The lack of blood in the hands caused the fiber to more or less deteriorate.

"I do everything to build strength in my hands and arms. I've got different types of devices I exercise with.

"I've been working from daylight to dark. I've been hitting from 300 to 500 balls a day."

"It's been so good down here," Venturi said. "It (the Plantation Golf Club), is a good place to play and the weather has been warm."

Venturi attempted to return to the golf tour in the Pensacola Open in early March, but dropped out after the first round when cold weather numbed his fingers. He failed to make the cut a week later at the Doral in Miami, then decided against starting the Jacksonville Open after playing in the pro-am. He said he couldn't properly grip the club.

"I should never have played before this anyway," he said. "At Doral, I couldn't hit the ball 200 yards. Now I am hitting the ball much farther, and much better.

"I'm going back at Augusta," he said. "I'm going from there on in."

Wow! Some Inning For Collegiate Star

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — If you hit a grand-slam home run and two doubles in a baseball game, you've done a hard day's work. But what about the guy who does all that in one inning.

Allen Trammell, a junior outfielder on the University of Florida baseball team, did all those things and more in a recent game against Kentucky.

Folks at Florida claim it's a feat without equal in the history of the game.

The first time Trammell came to bat in the sixth inning, Kentucky was leading 1 0. With men on first and second base, Trammell doubled 340 feet off the left center field fence to knock in the tying run. He scored a minute later.

The next time up in the same inning, Trammell had three men on the bases and he clouted a fast ball 345 feet over the left center field fence.

Even though it was getting to be monotonous, Trammell, a 5-foot-11, 185-pound halfback borrowed from the football team, doubled 360 feet off the deep center field fence, scoring a man who was on first. As before, he too scored.

When Kentucky finally got the side out, Trammell had his grand-slam homer, the two doubles, six runs batted in and had scored three runs himself.

On the strength of Trammell's performance, Florida scored 18 runs in the sixth inning and went on to beat Kentucky 25-1.

Bill Kinard, football backfield coach at Florida, heard what Trammell was doing and made his way toward the youth, who was back at his spot in left field.

Yelling from the side of the field, Kinard said "Trammell, you get one more hit and you'll be back in pads tomorrow."

He then muttered, as he headed back to his spring football chores, "Keep those scouts away from him."

Trammell, in Florida's 11 games to date, is batting .512 and has hit safely in 20 straight contests, including the last nine of last season. He batted .370 last year.

Florida has a 9-2 record this year.

10 Marin Bowlers In ABC Tourney

Ten bowlers from Country Club Bowl in San Rafael are leaving next Monday for St. Paul, Minn., and the American Bowling Congress tournament which runs through May 27.

Included on the Country Club Bowl Team No. 1 are Dick Dillehay, Bill Mix, Hal Hocken, Laurie Migliore and Mike Curry. Making up Country Club Bowl Team No. 2 are Bill Rhodes, Chico Valsecchi, Walt Carter, Russ Zappetini and Jim Pistolesi.

The two teams will be competing April 6 and 7.

Baltimore Bullets Try For Clincher

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)— The Baltimore Bullets, ready to cast sentiment and Bob Pettit to the wind, hope to clinch their series tonight against the St. Louis Hawks in the Western Division semifinals of the National Basketball Association playoffs.

The underdog Bullets won two of the first three games against St. Louis and need just one more victory to clinch the best-of-five series and advance to the divisional finals against Los Angeles.

A St. Louis loss would bring to a sudden end the fabulous career of Pettit, the leading scorer in NBA history. Pettit, out of action for a month in the latter part of the campaign with injuries, already has announced he will retire at the close of the current season.

Baltimore, which finished third in the west behind St. Louis, registered a resounding 131-99 victory over the Hawks here last Saturday night. The margin of 32 points was greater than the total margin the Bullets compiled in six previous successes over St. Louis this season.

Should the Hawks win tonight, the decisive game will be played at St. Louis. The survivor of this series will open against the Lakers at Los Angeles Saturday night.

The Philadelphia 76ers hold a 2-1 edge over the Cincinnati Royals in their best-of-five Eastern Division semifinals with the fourth game scheduled at Philadelphia tomorrow night.

Marin Golf Team Grabs Opening Win

College of Marin's golf team started off Golden Valley Conference action on the right foot yesterday, winning the first conference team match.

Marin scored a total of 218 points, seven points better than second place Shasta. All GVC teams competed in the match which was held at Peacock Gap Country Club. Each of the seven teams in the GVC host a match with the next one scheduled next Tuesday at Sierra.

Barry Hachmyer had the top Marin score of the day, a two over-par 73, and Dave Ronshausen was right behind with a 75. Other scores from the five-man Marin team were Craig Ballantine, 83; Woody Frink, 86, and Bob Brackett, 90.

The points are kept on an accumulative basis, the team with the highest score after the seven matches declared the winner.

Sturgeon Tastes Like Chicken Montezuma Stripers Are Hungry

STEVENS

Let's start today's column by answering a question that has been asked a number of times—"Is a sturgeon really good to eat?" I quote verbatim from Mrs. Ellen C. Dambruck, of Hayward: "I enjoy your column very much. The other day I ate some fried sturgeon for the first time. It was delicious; almost like the breast of chicken."

While in the mood for quoting from recent letters I have received, the following is from George Mura whose feat of catching a fairly quick limit of stripers in Montezuma Slough has been cited in an earlier column. Angler Mura says: "Enclosed is the picture of our beautiful catch. We had a field day, at least for the month of March. I never caught a limit in March in such a short time before. They were definitely fresh run fish. One bass we cleaned had a nine inch bass in its stomach, others had nothing in their stomachs. When these bass hit the bait, anchovies and sardines, you know it! They didn't nibble like most large bass; they just bent your rod-tip almost into the water. Seems to me there isn't much food in the Montezuma area."

SO, HOW about some of you readers helping the poor starving stripers in Montezuma Slough by furnishing a few good meals of anchovies, sardines, bullheads, etc.?

Here's a bit of advice to all and sundry who submit a picture of a fish or a catch of fish with the idea of having it printed to back up your story. George Mura sent along a color picture of the six beautiful bass he and his buddy caught. I had to return the photo for the reason that it would not reproduce properly in news print. First, because it was not "sharp" enough; too cloudy, as it were. Second, because the fish were laid on the ground, and not held up with at least part of the white bellies showing. The bass were all of good size (16 to 22 pounds) but in the snapshot they looked like three and four pounders.

OKAY, THAT'S off my chest. Now for a brief account of local fishing for the weekend just passed. Salmon trolling outside the Golden Gate near the Towers was generous to the boats out of Tony Caruso's place at Sausalito. Fifteen boats out on Saturday, 247 salmon to 18 pounds, The Salmon Queen unloaded 31 beautiful salmon to 16 pounds. Wonderful weather and water, reported Tony.

Striper striving can be rated fair on Saturday and Sunday, with Friday a washout account of storm. Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia reported 19 boats bringing in 50 bass to 30 pounds. One boat was in at 8:30 a.m. on Sunday with 9 bass from 12 to 20 pounds. Bob Spain's limit ran from 12 to 21 pounds. . . . Harold Delma and friend had 4 to 18 pounds, and J. P. Mello and 2 pals had 7 bass to 20 pounds. Joe Nerviani gave high praise to the trio from Sebastopol mentioned above. "The three fished mainly in the shallow water, use only a tear drop sinker, loose line and bullhead baits," reported Joe.

Prospects for a real old time fishing week ahead look all okay from where I sit. Chow!

Novato Wins In Baseball

A home run by Mark Moore, double by John Dolinsek and a three-for-three performance by Bruce Hoddy powered the Novato High School baseball team to a 6-2 victory over Palma High at Salinas Saturday.

Sophomore pitcher Chuck Ashworth went the distance on the mound for the Hornets to get credit for their third win of the season against two losses. He gave up seven hits and struck out eight batters.

Redwood Golfers In Double Win

Redwood High School's golf team opened its season with a double win yesterday at the Meadow Club in Fairfax. The Giants beat both Washington and Lincoln of San Francisco by identical scores of 8-4.

Redwood winners against both teams were Buzz Beattie, Norm Hantzche, Dave Cardy, Darrell Swink, Craig Iverson and Bruce McGee. Craig Johnson, Brock Bruderer, Greg Cast and Mike Kelly each won once.

Medalists were Beattie and Kelly, each with a 77.

SIMPLE, REWARDING

Salmon Trolling Exciting Outing

By EDWIN S. CAPPS
Capitol News Service

SACRAMENTO — Those Californians who are inlanders and landlubbers (and we plead guilty to being both) are missing a good bet if they don't get down to the ocean to have a try at the salmon fishing.

It's a project we'd had in mind for quite some time but just never got around to doing until late last October. It always seemed that there might be too much trouble in making arrangements, might be too expensive, and that perhaps you'd have to be "in the know" to take part in salmon fishing.

Although we went with some friends, we found it's as simple as can be.

We fished out of a Sausalito landing, on the Hurricane, skippered by Jack Wenzler. His is one of the larger boats, some 50 feet long or more, with room for up to 16 rods. We had 11 people fishing which, of course, makes it a bit more comfortable.

Fortune and the weatherman smiled on us for our mid-March outing. The sea was calm, the skies clear, and the winds practically non-existent. Even Wenzler, who has been skippering out of Sausalito for some 15 years, said it was a rare day. This was borne out by the fact some 200 boats were counted in the area.

SKIPPER'S KNOWLEDGE

Quite a bit of salmon fishing, of course, depends on your skipper and whether he knows where the salmon are. Wenzler had a pretty good bead on them on our trip. When he cut the power on the Hurricane and said to start fishing, there were two salmon on before we even got our line into the water.

For those who are strangers to salmon trolling, fairly heavy rods and reels, preferably with star drags, are used. About six feet above the bait and hook, a three-pound, round iron weight is attached to a spring release. At a certain pull, the weight drops off so the salmon can be landed without the added weight of the sinker.

Salmon fishing can get pretty dull at times but then again it can be pretty wild. The chances usually are that, when one rod gets a strike, another can be expected for someone else.

On our trip, the action slacked off after we had something more than 20 salmon in the box, ranging from six or seven pounds up to a top of 15. So Captain Wenler fired up the Hurricane and we moved a couple of miles. Within a few minutes after we resumed, someone had a strike and the action was on again.

To drop a name or two, we were in company with Joe Farber, state director of veterans affairs, and Assemblyman Philip L. Soto, D-La Puente. Soto, on his first salmon trip, took honors for the biggest fish, with the 15-pounder.

FRESH SALMON

A trip on a salmon boat at once provides a day of real relaxation and getting away from it all. And on salmon fishing, we'll admit to being a meat fisherman because we really like to bring them home. There's not much comparison between fresh caught salmon and those in the stores that have been frozen for a long time.

It can be a family affair, if you like, as it's a good chance to take the wife for a comfortable trip. And, when she ties into a 12 or 14-pound salmon, she'll become a fisherman pretty quick.

The tab is standard on most boats and, while you might not want to go out every weekend, it's not much compared to other recreational cost. The standard rate is $12 per rod, per day. There's also another item of 50 cents for each weight lost. On a good day, if you limit out, you lose three weights, so that's another $1.50 to consider.

OLD DESIGN, NEW USE

The "Triptych," the world's largest tri-catamaran is just about set for launching as workmen add finishing touches at Padstow, Cornwall, England, recently. The vessel, a sophisticated version of the basic craft perfected by the Polynesians thousands of years ago, was built for a Canadian town and will be used for charter service.

U.S. Gets Tough On Bias In Guard Ranks

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Guard Bureau has published toughly worded new regulations making it clear that federal recognition — and thus federal money — will be withdrawn from any unit which discriminates against Negroes.

The Associated Press learned today that separate regulations, covering the Army National Guard and the Air National Guard, were issued recently and brought to the attention of the states.

These regulations would penalize any Guard units which discriminate against a Negro enlistment, assignment, promotion or similar actions.

The Guard organizations of all 50 states officially have lowered such racial barriers and integration has occurred at least on a token basis in all Southern states.

But the President's Committee on Equal Opportunity in the Armed Forces has indicated strongly that tokenism is not enough.

The National Guard Bureau has relied over the years on persuasion to nudge reluctant states into line.

Denial of federal recognition would mean that a state involved would have to pick up the whole tab for its unit. The federal government now pays 90 per cent of the cost of maintaining Guard units it recognizes.

This covers pay for drilling and other expenses. The federal government also supplies arms and equipment to federally recognized units. This gear would be taken away if recognition were withdrawn.

Bodies Removed From Mud In Quake Disaster Town

EL COBRE, Chile (AP) — Thirty-six bodies have been recovered from the mud of El Cobre, and police doubt that many more of the hundreds buried here will be found. The death toll from the quake that shook Chile Sunday appeared to be about 400.

The U.S. Embassy in Santiago and the government said they knew of no Americans killed or injured in the disaster.

More earth tremors were felt yesterday, but no new casualties or damage were reported.

Most of the dead were at El Cobre, 80 miles north of Santiago, where the quake burst a 230-foot-high dam of rock and mud and unleashed two million tons of rubble on the mining village below. Only a handful of the 400 inhabitants survived.

"It was like a gigantic wave, more than 100 feet high, made of sand, mud and water," said Carlos Munchel, one of the survivors.

Elsewhere in Chile, 25 other persons were reported killed in the quake. Hundreds were injured and thousands homeless. Damage was estimated in the millions of dollars.

The quake was mountainous Chile's worst since May 1960 when more than 5,000 persons perished.

Salvadore Allende, the Marxist senator who lost the presidential election last year, said he would demand an investigation of safety procedures employed by the French copper mining company that maintained the dam.

More than a dozen towns and cities in populous central Chile felt the quake. Panic-stricken residents fled into the streets. Buildings buckled and fires erupted.

The epicenter was near the railway and highway junction of Llay-Llay, 50 miles north of Santiago. Nearly every building there was destroyed and seven persons were reported dead.

Four deaths and extensive damage were reported in Valparaiso, Chile's largest port and second city. A curfew was imposed to prevent looting. There was one death in Santiago.

President Eduardo Frei held a Cabinet session to map a relief program.

U.S. Ambassador Ralph A. Dungan went to the presidential palace in Santiago with a personal offer of help from President Johnson.

Marin Youngsters Win Recognition

Jackie Bridges of San Rafael and Bob Beadle of Novato were awarded third place trophies at the Junior Ballroom Dance competition held at the Richmond Municipal Auditorium on Saturday.

They were among 28 Marin County youngsters who won recognition in the competition sponsored by the Dance Masters of America. All of the award winners are eligible for the National Dance Masters' competitions in Washington, D. C., in July.

MRS. BARI FROHLICH, director of the Junior Cotillion of Marin, entered these winners: Julie Giomi and Brian McCarthy of San Rafael placed fourth in the fifth and sixth grade division; Denise Abbett of Novato and Dan Bridges of San Rafael placed fifth in the fifth and sixth grade division; and Lisa Heide of Fairfax and Dennis Kean of Novato placed sixth in the advanced seventh and eighth grade division.

In earlier competition at the Sheraton Villa Hotel in San Mateo, Debbie Wineland of Novato and Mark Riordan of San Rafael won first place awards in the fifth and sixth grade division of the Cotillion Dance competition.

OTHER WINNERS were Karen Keller and Steve Cermak of Novato, second place; Lorie Louie and Rob Babo of Novato, third place; Becky Jones and Brian Halloran of San Rafael, fourth place; Holly Vernon and Gordon Ness of San Rafael, fifth place; and Jennifer Heller and Jim Farley of San Rafael, sixth place.

WINNING IN the seventh and eighth grade division in San Mateo were Pam Greenamyer and Barry Beringer of Novato, first place; Amy Marshall of Fairfax and Steve Lockett of San Rafael, second place; Janice Kimbell and Dennis Colon of Novato, fourth place; Leslie Connarn and Robert Hamilton of Kentfield, fifth place.

EXHIBITING the perfect form which won the dance recognition at Saturday's competition San Mateo are Debbie Wineland of Novato a Mark Riordan of San Rafael. Both are studen of Mrs. Bari Frohlich, director of the Juni Cotillion.

Collegian Joins In Amigos Anonymous

Gayle Wittenmeier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wittenmeier of Mill Valley, is home on a semester break from the University of Santa Clara, where she has a unique interest. A graduate of Marin Catholic High School and a second-year English major, Gayle is an enthusiastic member of Amigos Anonymous. The Amigos are West Coast college students who spend their summer vacations working in Mexican villages.

GAYLE WITTENMEIER

Gayle explained that this group aims at building community leadership at home through helping community development abroad.

She said, "the Amigos community development projects are designed to enable the Mexican villages to carry on programs of self-help while the student is given the chance to learn about community development on the personal level.

"The program is made more effective in that the students must devote themselves to preparation during the school year with language lessons, self-evaluation, coordination of supplies and working financing of the group."

Amigos Anonymous depends entirely on voluntary contributions to finance its work, she explained.

New additions include a silent auction and charcoal sketches, with proceeds from both to go towards the Rancho book fund.

A variety of hot and cold foods will be available during the day.

To complete the day, a skate board contest will be held at 2:30 p.m. with a trophy awarded to the top girl and boy contestant.

A MAY 7 WEDDING is planned by Barbara Ann Green, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Standish Green of Corte Madera, and Alexander Peter Bardea III of Mill Valley (Planert photo)

Barbara Ann Green To Wed Alexander Peter Bardea III

Capt. and Mrs. Standish Green of Corte Madera have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to Alexander Peter Bardea III of Mill Valley.

Barbara, the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Spencer of Corte Madera, is the sister of Robert S. Green who is serving with the Marine Corps at Camp Pendleton.

She was graduated from Redwood High School and attended College of Marin.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander P. Bardea Jr. of Mill Valley and the brother of Mrs. Thomas Astengo of Fairfax. He was graduated from Tamalpais High School and attended College of Marin where he was a member of the basketball team.

Following a May 7 wedding at St. Patricks Church in Larkspur, the couple will reside in La Jolla.

BARBARA JOY GAZZANO of San Rafael and David N. Martin of San Anselmo have set a Sept. 12 wedding date at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael.

Miss Gazzana's Engagement Announced At Dinner Party

The engagement of Barbara Joy Gazzano to David N. Martin of San Anselmo was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred N. Gazzano of San Rafael at a dinner party on March 21 at Maple Lawn, San Rafael.

Barbara is the sister of Edward F. Gazzano of San Rafael and was graduated from Marin Catholic High School. She attended Louise Salinger Academy of Fashion and Dress Design in San Francisco.

The future bridegroom is the son of Follis Berney of Redway and the late Mrs. Berney. He was graduated from Arcata Union High School in Arcata and served in the U.S. Navy aboard the USS Hancock. He is employed with United Markets in San Anselmo.

A Sept. 12 wedding is planned at St. Raphael's Church in San Rafael.

Teen-Agers Topic For Neil Cummins P-TA Program

Three panelists will appear at Neil Cummins Parent-Teacher Assn's. meeting April 7, to discuss teen-agers from their respective points of view. Dr. Samuel LeCount, psychologist at College of Marin; Dr. Patricia Hallinan Harris, physician with Marin County Health Department, and the Rev. Frank Hamilton, pastor at Redwoods Presbyterian Church in Larkspur, have taught, counseled and worked with youth for many years.

The evening's program will be the panel's presentation followed by audience questions and is a continuation of earlier teen-age discussions. In a February P-TA program the topic was introduced by a panel of teachers, parents and teen-agers.

Coffee will be served in the school's all-purpose room at 7:30 p.m. The Neil Cummins P-TA unit will award its Honorary Life Membership at 8 o'clock and the program will follow, according to Mrs. Gage Sproul, president.

Club To Hear Talk On Drugs At Friday Meet

Maturity Of Feet Takes Many Years

NEW YORK (UPI) — When a baby is born, its foot is a mass of soft bones and flesh. Gradually, its foot takes shap and ally, its foot takes shape and fully matured until the youngster is 15 years old, according to the professional services department shoe company. Experts there remind that until the child is about 15 years of age, shoes must be fitted with extra care. Up to this age the child outgrows its shoes before outwearing them.

Education Research Produces Significant New Innovations

By ERWIN KNOLL
Advance News Service

NEW YORK — "Any subject can be taught effectively to any child at any age in some form that is honest and useful."

A growing number of the nation's schools are testing this sweeping assertion by psychologist Jerome Brunner—and finding it to be valid.

Recent experiments in education are producing significant classroom innovations and proving "that we have barely scratched the surface of man's ability to learn," school officials were told at a conference this week.

"Researchers are now beginning to question many of the cherished cliches about how, how much, how early, how quickly and how well children can learn," Francis A. J. Ianni told members of the council of chief state school officers.

AS DIRECTOR of educational research for the U.S. Office of Education, Ianni cited these examples of the ferment now taking place in the schools:

At Syracuse University and at Webster College in St. Louis, mathematician Robert Davis has developed program to guide elementary pupils in discovering the basis concepts of modern mathematics. Results of the programs are so encouraging that teachers are now being trained in their use and school systems throughout the country are adopting them.

At Rutgers University, social psychologist O. K. Moore has demonstrated that children can be taught to read—and read well — at age 2 if their natural curiosity and drive are stimulated in an atmosphere of encouragement rather than drill and repetition.

AT THE UNIVERSITY of Illinois, mathematician Robert Page has been working with very young children to produce an early understanding of the principles of mathematics instead of rote memorization of numbers tables. At the same university, J. Richard Suchman has for several years been leading elementary school children through the principles of original scientific investigation.

At Purdue, economist Lawrence Senesh is teaching college-level economics to second-graders, and has them solving real economic problems.

At Harvard, anthropologist Douglas Oliver is developing a course in anthropology for elementary pupils.

At the Juilliard School of Music, Vittorio Giannini is working with a team of musicians, composers and music teachers to enrich the repertory of elementary school music courses.

At Stanford University, Patrick Suppes is teaching advanced algebra to fifth-graders and Nobel Prize winner William Shockley is teaching the concept of conservation of energy to ninth-graders.

AT THE UNIVERSITY of California, Mark Schorer, is developing kinescope models on how to teach poetry, drama, the short story and the novel in the tenth grade.

THOUGH THESE developments point to "a ferment in American education as great as any experienced in the last half century," they don't begin to tap the potential of the schools and of children, Ianni said.

He pointedly told the state school officials there is "reluctance toward innovation in many of our schools and a craving in a few for change almost for the sake of change."

Only a few of the 50 state school superintendents indicated that their departments have the funds, staff and facilities for original research in education.

IANNI SAID there is often a 30-year lag between educational research and its application—compared with perhaps two years in the health field.

Despite substantial recent increases, expenditures for educational research also compare very unfavorably with other fields, he pointed out.

WITH A TOTAL annual outlay of some $32 billion for all school levels, education may be ranked as the nation's first industry. Yet less than one-fifth of 1 per cent of this amount is now spent on research. In private enterprise, the average research allocation is about 10 per cent.

Bringing Up Baby®

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

While thumbing through a magazine, I came upon the wisest words of the week: "A baby must grow from within as well as without!" How true! Wee ones, like all of us, need nourishment for the spirit as well as food for the body. Providing for baby's physical needs certainly shows up in inches and outward well-being. But when you share your heart with your baby, you help make his inner being blossom.

•

"Acceptance" speech. Learning to know the kinds of foods your baby likes is helpful in building good food acceptances. Patience and perception will help you toward planning meals to please.

•

Notation from Dan Gerber. "Agricultural Research is a year-round project at Gerber. Our agricultural experts work on every phase of growing, from soil selection to harvesting methods. As a matter of fact, there are at least 12 areas of control employed by Gerber field men. Everything that can be, is controlled from soil testing, dates of planting, growth periods and handling methods. All this to assure foods worthy of your baby. When you buy Gerber, you're sure of your money's worth in nourishment."

•

New way to vitamin-A value: Gerber Strained Creamed Asparagus . . . a subtle taste-surprise to light up the eyes of your darling. A high vitamin-A value makes it a good alternate for Spinach, Sweet Potatoes or Squash

•

Warming thought. A regulation egg poacher is perfect for heating two or three different baby foods at once. Wonderful to have everything warm and ready at the same time.

•

Sunny thought. Golden goodness with a body-building bonus: Gerber Strained Egg Yolks. A delicate, fresh egg flavor, coupled with a smooth, custardy texture puts delight in every bite. Good for baby, too. They're rich in iron and vitamin A, and a good source of protein. Gerber® Baby Foods, Box 72, Fremont, Michigan.

Short Work Week Presents Problem For The Housewife

Though the shorter work week may be "spreading the work" as its union sponsors claim, it is by no means spreading unadulterated sunshine in the American home, a national survey revealed.

Most wives whose husbands presently work a six-hour day—or a four-day week—find that the new schedule leads to a great number of problems, according to the survey. The average housewife, who works a 12-hour day, tends to resent a husband who works only six hours a day and can loaf the rest of the time, said the article.

Labor officials estimate that in fewer than 10 years the four-day week—or the six-hour day—will be the rule for most of America's labor force. The effect of all this free time has long worried the nation's sociologists, psychologists and welfare agencies.

ONE OF THE greatest points of friction between husband and wife under the shorter work week is the children's upbringing, according to Dr. Joseph Wilder, of New York Medical College, a psychiatrist who has studied the effects of the new leisure on the American family. Since a man on a five or six-hour day gets home from work about the same time his children get home from school, there is a much greater risk of divided parental authority. "For decades," says Doctor Wilder, "the American male has spent so much time away from home, on the job, that he has become a vague figure to his children. He has left all the decisions to his wife—and all the power. The American woman may complain that she has all the burdens, but she has enjoyed her power and her monopoly in the love of the children. She won't want to give that up, even in part."

"PARENTS ARE jealous of each other," adds Doctor Wilder. "Let's admit that. For the wife, the shorter work week will produce a very big problem, that of competing with her husband for the children's affection and respect."

Dr. James E. Birren, of the National Institute of Mental Health in Washington, believes that the shorter work week "is likely to undermine the success the country has had recently in persuading its young people to work and study harder in school. We can't ask children to work harder than the adults . . .

"WHEN THE CHILDREN see Pop just sitting there looking at television, their motivation for study and work will be destroyed," said Doctor Birren. "Either the son will come down to the level of his father, figuring, 'Why should I work so hard when I'm going to end up like the old man, anyway?', or—particularly if he is a bright youngster—he will make fun of his father, mocking him for doing nothing, for not amounting to anything. This may create terrible tension, undermine the children's morale, and cause a split between the older and younger generations," he says.

SMALL FRY AT HIGH TEA, POOL

Alyssa invited you to tea because of your well bred manners, so undemanding when it comes to wear-care. Thanks to you, this charming coat dress, in Blends' twill woven to Celanese Fortrel polyester and rayon never forgets its wrinkle-free poise. Sparking the tea table conversation was the wonderful way the hostess looked as she served tea, wearing a party-time confection that was liberally iced with lace on the large pilgrim collar and three quarter sleeves. The graceful A-line flare, under the influence of an inverse pleat, was especially designed to make the most-est of any young hostess. At right, a popular duo . . . Fortrel and fashion, they work so well together. These sunny styles for the sandbox set by Johnston, Inc. will stay crisp and neat, no matter how frantic the play pace. Our budding beauty chooses the pristine white A-line silhouette, that counts the checked bow appliques as its fashion asset. Her more active playmate is the picture of chic in a sunsuit that arranges a blouson top over checked shorts, and adds matching appliques for whimsey.

Campaign In Russia To Make Bridal Ceremony Meaningful

MOSCOW (AP)—Marriage in the Soviet Union traditionally is about as unceremonious as a trip to the market.

Now a campaign is on to make it more meaningful.

More and more couples are getting married—or registered, as it's called here—in so-called wedding palaces rather than in district registration centers where all civil marriages were performed until recent years.

The ceremony is much the same—there are no "I dos" and no one pronounces the couple man and wife—but an effort is being made to surround it with more elegance and style.

In Moscow there are two wedding palaces, the older one four years old. All large cities now have them.

The buildings are rather plain—hardly the movie conception of a palace—but they're cheerful and well-lighted inside. They are roomier than registration centers — of which Moscow alone has 17—with an assortment of salons and waiting rooms, including one where the bride can adjust her veil and check her coiffure.

WEDDING PALACES across the USSR did a big business in the week just before New Year's Day. That's the popular time for matrimony here, the Soviet equivalent of June in Western countries.

A wedding ceremony takes minutes. The young couple—only people 18 to 30 may be married at a palace—are ushered into a high-ceilinged, chandelier-hung room with two witnesses and sometimes a handful of parents and friends.

With recorded Mendelssohn playing in the background, they are addressed briefly by a woman dressed in black who counsels them to be attentive to one another and "safeguard your love," then ties the knot with:

"In accordance with the family and marriage law of the Russian Soviet Federated Socialist Republic . . . we register this couple."

Wedding rings are exchanged—double-ring ceremonies are the style—and the newlyweds kiss. The ceremony is over.

As soon as one group leaves another is ushered in.

BY CUSTOM A wedding party is held in the evening at the home of bride or groom, at a friend's home or in a rented hall. The newlyweds normally get three days off from their jobs. They spend the time in their new home; out-of-town honeymoons are not fashionable.

An increasing number of brides wear veils and carry flowers, trappings seldom given much play in the past.

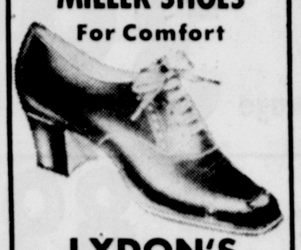

The cost of outfitting a bride is around $150, more than a skilled factory hand earns in a month.

For the bridegroom a good suit costs about $178 and a good pair of shoes about $45.

A plain yellow gold wedding band costs $26.

Reds Buying Politicos To Gain Africa Footing

By HENRY REUTER
Advance News Service

NAIROBI—The communist inroads made in Africa during recent months has caused many Western observers on this continent to have grave doubts about the efficacy of American policy here.

Assistant Secretary of State for African Affairs, G. Mennen Williams, has repeatedly said: "We want for Africa what it wants for itself." Other American leaders have expressed the same sentiment. But though this is a fine, democratic principle, it does not come to grips with realities.

The hard fact is that with a continent in transition, as Africa is, not even the 34-member Organization for African Unity can say what Africa wants. The recent OAU meeting here, to try to cope with the Congo problem, for example, proved inadequate to the task because of the wide divergence of opinion.

There is similar division on what to do about the growing threat of Communist infiltration.

With phenomenal speed, the "wind of change" blowing through this continent in the past few years has turned one colony after another into independent nations. Today there are 35 sovereign States, with more to come.

The wind is still blowing, but now it is a fitful wind which is rapidly blowing in communism on the heels of the departing colonialism. Though it is the democratic Western powers which have made the independence possible, it is the communist dictatorships of Red China and the Soviet Union which are currently winning the "ideological battle for Africa."

The question American diplomats in Africa are now asking themselves is: Where did we go wrong? For the U.S. image in Africa has never been worse.

The irony is that Washington went "wrong" by doing the "right" things. Until comparatively recently, it was largely a matter of aid. The U.S. poured money into projects which the new African countries desperately needed. But meanwhile the Communists were pouring their money into the private pockets of powerful and/or potentially powerful African leaders.

Building a school, a dam or a hospital does not have the same political impact as buying a politician. The dispatching of a Peace Corps does not carry the same weight in African affairs as the arming, training and equipping of a force of "freedom fighters."

And while Americans plug away at good deeds in the belief that in the long run Africans will realize it was the U.S. which had the best interests of the continent at heart, the Comunists have recently embarked on a more active campaign aimed at ensuring there will be no long run in Africa, so far as the West is concerned.

Russian and Red Chinese agents are now swarming over most of the independent African countries. The Chinese are openly training African guerrilla forces to be sent into South Africa, Rhodesia and the Portuguese territories. Red China is giving considerable military credits to African nations. And both Chinese and Russian communists are busily working up hatred among the African masses against their own (African) commercial and administrative groups.

British Foreign Secretary, Mr. Michael Stewart, was reported to have shocked delegates to the West European Union meeting in Rome recently, when he submitted a detailed survey of communist activities in Africa. It is significant that the publication of this action drew a storm of abuse from left-leaning African politicians. It was condemned as a "neo-colonialist maneuver," a bid to maintain the "selfish capitalist system," "interference in African affairs" etc.

Such politicians take advantage of the "non-alignment" policy of many African governments by arguing that, since their countries have been historically influenced by the West, a little balancing by Eastern influence will do no harm.

Other leading African politicians roundly condemn efforts from either the communist world or the free world to bring ideological warfare into Africa. But they find themselves unable to answer convincingly the communist argument that: "You are dedicated to the development of African socialism. As experienced socialists, we merely want to help."

The question now facing the West, and particularly the United States, is where to go from here. Should financial aid be withdrawn except from those countries willing to stand up against communist infiltration?

A SOULFUL CANCER CRUSADER

Poppy, a Basset hound owned by Michael King of 112 Almenar Drive, Greenbrae, seems to be imploring the people of Marin County to join the fight against cancer, as she licks a commemorative stamp to go on sale at post offices in Marin Friday. The stamp is being issued to coincide with the naming of April as Cancer Control Month by President Johnson. The April campaign of the American Cancer Society in Marin will reach its high point with house to house canvassing during the week of April 19. (Independent-Journal photo)

Ex-Bullfighter Seeks Custody Of One Son

Barnaby Conrad Jr., author and former bullfighter, has filed a motion in Marin Superior Court for custody of his oldest son.

The boy is now in custody of Conrad's ex-wife, Dale Cowgill Conrad, formerly of Belvedere.

Conrad, now wed to Mary Nobles Conrad (the former Mrs William A. Slater III), asks modification of the Jan. 26, 1962, interlocutory decree custody terms. He charges the mother almost immediately undertook a program of harassment.

He charges she has consistently denied him "reasonable" visitation of the son, Barnaby III, aged 12, a daughter, Cayetana, 10, and another son, Winston Stuart, 8, as provided in the custody terms.

The mother often would cut short visits with explanation that the children had dinner plans, his request declares, but he would later learn there were no plans and that the mother would leave the children with a baby-sitter and go out.

Conrad alleges she moved the children to Woodside, San Mateo County, in June of 1962, and although visits were difficult there, she further moved on Jan. 5, 1964, to Palm Beach, Fla. She and the children still reside there, he said.

The author cites his "rather impecunious financial situation" as making it nearly impossible to visit in Florida and alleges the oldest son has many times expressed the wish to live with Conrad and his present wife Mary.

He states he also would like custody of the other two children, but cannot afford that.

Hearing date on the modification request has not been scheduled.

College Rite Due Sunday At New Gym

Ceremonies and an open house to dedicate the $1.5 million College of Marin physical education complex will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday at the gymnasium on the Kentfield campus.

The complex is the first unit of the 10-year expansion program at the campus to be completed, paid for from funds from a special 35-cent tax for construction.

Included in the new complex are a gymnasium, swimming and diving pools, classrooms, special exercise and activity rooms, locker rooms, playing fields and courts and parking. The project was designed by San Francisco architects Falk and Booth and built by Ralph M. Larsen and Son Construction Co., South San Francisco.

Trustee Elizabeth M. Deedy will give the dedication address. Short talks will be given by student body president Renato Sottile and college president Stephen E. Epler. Master or ceremonies will be chairman Robert E. Oliver of the Marin Junior College District board.

Invocation will be by Rev. John Riley, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael, with benedication by Rev. Donald Kohler, director of athletics at Marin Catholic High School.

Redwood Scholar Awards Tonight

Redwood High School students who have earned memberships in the California Scholarship Federation and the Redwood Honor Society will be presented with awards in the Redwood Little Theater tonight at 8 o'clock.

An inaugural meeting for a parent organization aiming to promote recognition of scholastic honors is also planned. The new group will be called the Sequoians.

A constitution will be presented by Mrs. John McGee, a slate of officers by Mrs. C. R. Gondak, and a financial statement by Mrs. John C. Siemens. Speaker will by Principal Donald Kreps.

Quartet Slates Final Concert

The Marin Arts Quartet will present its third and closing concert in its eighth season Sunday at 3 p.m. in the Outdoor Art Clubhouse, Mill Valley.

Quartet members are violists Charles Meacham and Cicely Edmunds, violist Elizabeth Bell and cellist Jean Maguire.

The program will consist of Quartet in E Flat Major, Op. 76, No. 6, by Haydn; Quartet "Late Swallows" by Delius; and String Quartet No. 7 by Villa-Lobos. Tea will be served after the program.

Babysitter Tryst Case Trial Delayed

Trial of Leonard A. Grove, charged with statutory rape of a high school girl, was postponed from April 20 to April 27 yesterday in Marin Superior Court at request of Grove's attorney, Jerome Duffy.

Grove, now living at 56 Dominican Drive, San Rafael, allegedly had sexual relations with the girl in a rented Santa Venetia house starting last September.

Bagley's Bill May Help End Gas Chamber In California

San Rafael Assemblyman William T. Bagley has introduced a bill that would add another penalty in capital crimes cases—life imprisonment without possibility of parole.

Such a law could serve several useful purposes.

One obvious advantage would be the wider choice it would offer to jurors, who are called upon to decide the life or death of a fellowman.

Jurors, deciding the fate of a defendant convicted of a capital crime, are torn between two grave decisions.

One would send a fellow human being to the gas chamber. The other would send him to prison for a "life term."

But as most jurors are well aware, "life in prison" always carries with it the possibility of parole. In some cases, a man sentenced to life imprisonment could conceivably be freed on parole after seven years.

The choice then boils down to (1) sending a man to the gas chamber (2) or taking the chance that a dangerous criminal will again walk the streets in seven, 10, or 15 years.

We suspect that many a juror, faced with such a decision, would gladly welcome a third alternative that would relieve him of assuming the role of executioner and at the same time assure society that the dangerous criminal will never again prowl the streets to strike for the second time.

This new penalty provision could also become the first step toward eventual abolition of the death penalty.

The addition of a new alternative that would take a dangerous criminal out of circulation for good without taking his life could serve as a workable compromise for both the proponents and opponents of the death penalty.

Whether or not the death penalty is a deterrent to crime could be put to partial test.

With a change in the law, we can foresee the possibility that jury after jury would impose the new life term without parole on the most serious offenders, reserving life with possible parole for the others.

Extend this practice over a period of time with no serious repercussions, and the pubic may be more inclined to accept the premise that California might well get along without the death penalty.

We hope that the new bill will win the approval of the Legislature.

We believe California has everything to gain and little to lose from such a law.

PAINT JOB DONE OUT OF SPITE

Waking up to find his house had been newly painted was almost too much for one man in Carlisle, England.

"I walked out the front door," he said, "and there it was, all painted pink."

He suspected a prankster and called police.

Upon investigation, the party involved turned out to be his landlord.

"I painted it pink at 5 o'clock in the morning," the owner readily admitted. "It's my house—I mean I own it—and I can do with it what I want to."

The strange situation grew out of a long-standing dispute between the two men over rent payment.

Most of us are tempted at times to allow spite to take the place of reason.

Besides failing to gain its objective, vindictiveness often boomerangs on the one who gives in to it. This is because God made us to give as well as to get.

Instead of becoming preoccupied with your own rights and feelings, have the largeness of heart to make room for the legitimate concerns of others.

"Vengeance is Mine; I will repay, says the Lord." (Romans 12:19)

Show me how to expand my outlook by generosity, O Lord, and not to narrow it by selfishness.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Transportation Fees Might Be Reduced Under Proposed Law

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—One of the more important measures to come before the State Legislature this year, affecting highway and rail transportation rates, has been introduced by Sen. James Cobey, D-Merced. Adoption of this law, and its accompanying constitutional amendment, would have a material effect on charges for hauling goods and could be the means of reducing transportation fees.

Under the present set-up, carriers are required to meet the fees fixed by the State Public Utilities Commission. In other words, these fees are fixed and the person who has goods hauled from place to place must pay the fees, regardless of what they are.

UNDER THE LAW, the public utilities commission fixes fees on the basis of costs of doing business by a group of carriers.

In other words, the costs of the less efficient carriers are lumped into the total costs, and the result is, some carriers claim, that the standard rate is based not on the individual cost of doing business but on the costs as a whole.

Thus, the end result is that the efficient carrier is penalized from getting business on the basis of being able to haul for less. The public in the long run is forced to pay the additional costs, because the public utilities commission fixes the rates on the basis of higher costs of doing business.

COBEY'S constitutional amendment and bill would correct this situation and make for probable lowered rates. At least, it would give carriers more of an opportunity to compete on the basis of performance, rather than stick to rates fixed by the state.

His amendment removes railroads and highway common carriers transporting property, or express corporations utilizing the services of common carriers, from the constitutional provision requiring a showing before the public utilities commission to justify an increase in rates or charges before such increase may be made.

His bill, S.B. 820, revises regulations of carriers, especially all types of highway carriers, by the public utilities commission.

IT PROPOSES to amend the provisions, if the constitutional amendment passes, to allow every railroad, highway common carrier and express corporation to raise rates without commission approval, except that, for good cause, the commission may review the change in rate or charge.

The Cobey measures are sponsored by the California Manufacturers Assn., which has given lengthy study to the injustices and added costs to highway transportation because of the utility commission policy.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

San Geronimo Asks Freedom School Gift

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Last Christmas the people of San Geronimo Valley gathered and sent a truckload of books to the community center in Indianola, Miss.

On March 5, 1965, some people of that town poured kerosene over the building and burned it to the ground with all our books.

This spring, 1965, the people of our valley are gathering men, money and materials and will go there and rebuild the center.

NOW . . .

If each friend of Forest Farm brought his surplus books to the camp, I will load them into our big packtrip truck and haul them to Indianola. There will be room to take along many other things we will need to re-establish the center of learning.

I will leave after camp is over in the first week of September.

Please let your books join me in this "packtrip."

Inflation Damages Long-Range Planning

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Recent efforts . . . toward a speed-up of the county-wide master plan are certainly to be commended. . . . The unfortunate thing, however, is that even with master planning, development of an area such as Marin could be most unsatisfactory, as has been proved over and over again in other cities and counties.

The reason for this is that on the heels of planning decisions and zoning changes come the inflated land prices pushed up by land speculators in advance of the actual developments. The result is either higher prices (or smaller homes), as we already see in Marin, or granting of numerous variances and spot zoning changes so that developers and individual builders can take advantage of more reasonable land prices in uninflated areas. This is particularly evident today in the north county area. . . . Only by assisting the assessor in keeping the tax roles current so that they reflect the true value of properties today and not their value five or seven years ago can we hope to keep these inflationary pressures out of land prices. . . .

Tam Unification Mandate Nullified

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Beware the mandate of One! Apologists for Tamalpais Unification insist that the vote of June, 1964, that defeated this very proposal did not conform to their ideas of a mandate. Some 52.5 per cent of the voters said "NO!"—but that is not a mandate. . . .

Is a mandate a margin of 5 per cent or 10 per cent or is it unanimity? It is none of these things. But if the vote of June, 1964, had been reversed, that would have been a mandate! Had the measure passed by one vote, that would have been a mandate! . . .

This is an appeal to those valiant voters — the 3,736 in Mill Valley, the 1,148 in Sausalito, the 2,187 in San Anselmo, the 2,131 in Larkspur, the 964 in Fairfax—in those hotbeds of unification — to stand once again and be counted. We can not appeal to the fair-mindedness of those who would trade their children's education for a $15 bribe from Sacramento.

And don't let them tell you your vote is "uninformed." You know what you're voting AGAINST! Vote NO! Vote against "I'm for Unruh."

Unification Rumor Implication Weighed

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The phone campaign combining bussing of students to Marin City with the unification issue is, of course, the dirtiest sort of politics. Not only does it imply an unwarranted lack of responsiveness to public concern on the part of a still unelected Board of Trustees and a still unappointed administrative staff, but it is also a most vicious suggestion that a portion of our citizenry is somehow inferior to those of us whose skins happen to be paler.

It is this latter implication that I resent with all the fervor within me. The word "democracy" has taken on a deeper, more significant meaning through the actions of the Negroes of our land, and because of their sublime reactions to the cruel treatment they continue to receive, the stars on our flag shine a bit brighter. . . .

Bus our children to Marin City? Bus theirs to surrounding schools? What a wonderful opportunity we have to help our children make the words of the Declaration of Independence come to life! I can think of no responsible school administration that would do this without a consensus from the public, but neither can I think of a better argument for total unification.

No Boss Rule In San Anselmo

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We, as homeowner-taxpayers in San Anselmo, are far from satisfied with the innuendo now in circulation regarding the unrest in our city government. Your recent news item about our City Engineer, Mr. Sypher, was no surprise, neither was his reluctance to condemn a fellow man, whether he be a city official or whatever. Certainly, Mr. Sypher has made mistakes — who hasn't? — but he at least acknowledged one such, publicly. Now we have a question: Why doesn't "the other man" step forward and be counted? There are two sides to every question. The innuendo of boss rule in San Anselmo, if such is prevalent, should be stopped. We have an elected city council. They, collectively, should make the decisions.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

JUDGE CARL FRIEBOLIN insists that this note was found among the possessions of the Empress Josephine after her death: "Dear Josie: I seem to have misplaced one of my gloves, and since it's mighty cold here near Moscow, I wish you'd look in my top bureau drawer to see if I left it, please rush it to me by special courier, since I now have to keep one hand in my waistcoat —and the troops seem to find this amusing. Your devoted husband, Nappy."

A COUPLE OF FRESHMEN were yakking and laughing in the Dartmouth library recently when an outraged English instructor brought them up short. "Have you no consideration for others?" he whispered angrily. "Can't you see there are other students here trying to sleep?"

Race To Moon Has Implications For Very Future of The U. S.

WASHINGTON—The race to the moon continues and, whether we relish it or not, the U. S. is in it to the end.

The outcome is not in sight. But Gemini's magnificent, two-astronaut performance, plus Ranger's precise lunar photography, show that after our tardy start we are on the way.

WE ARE STILL behind the Soviets. Behind for a bad reason: Behind because we failed to grasp the world-wide psychological impact of outer space exploration.

We did not even grasp it when in 1957 the great Soviet "first" galvanized, scared, and thrilled the world, when it almost literally seized mankind by putting its satellite, Sputnik I, into orbit.

We remained behind because we failed to realize that at stake was the reputation of American science, the genius of American industry, and the capacity of our free institutions to seize and respond to the challenge. Instead, too many in high places poohpoohed it. As one of the most influential officials remarked, while millions of people listened to Sputnik's signals: "How ridiculous! Nothing more than tossing a basketball into the air."

NOT THAT nothing was being done. But for the most part it was business as usual, science as usual; nothing urgent, nothing galvanic — and the Soviets raced on. Not until Congress in 1961 made a lunar landing in this decade a national objective did we really get moving.

We are catching up. We may be nearer even in the race than we think.

Our timetable is public. Theirs is secret — though we know a good deal about it.

OUR HANDICAP has been the tardy development of powerful rockets to lift the vast weights to launch the men and mechanisms. Twice as much rocket thrust lifted Voshkod as put Gemini into space. It will be 1967 before the mighty 1.6-million-pound thrust of Saturn will be ready to put the three-man Apollo into orbit.

But the talented maneuverability of Gemini III was a first. It had abilities its Soviet equivalent did not have. It maneuvered in space. It changed its altitude and, most important, the shape and direction of its orbit—essential to achieving the rendezvous in space which will come later.

NATURALLY we want to win the race to the moon. But that is not the end in itself. The essential thing is to achieve pre-eminence for the U. S. in the mastery of outer space.

It was pre-eminence on the seas which gave Britain its ascendancy for a hundred years.

It was Allied pre-eminence in the air which guaranteed victory in World War II.

If we concede pre-eminence to the Soviet Union on the way to other planets, we will be conceding pre-eminence to the Soviet Union on this planet. If we do not make it our priority objective to achieve mastery of outer space, we will not be first to the moon, we will not be first in space, and the time will come when we will not be first on earth.

Then the problem of the other unfinished business of peace will be secondary; then the unfinished business will be survival under the worst of all conditions, because mastery of outer space is an essential dimension of life on this planet —an essential condition to preserving freedom on earth as control of the seas and control of the air have been essential in the past.

THE GOAL is not to deny the highways of outer space to any other nation. The goal is to make sure that no nation can deny the highways of outer space to the U. S.

Bankers' Boss Saxon On LBJ Doghouse List

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — Currency Comptroller James Saxon is definitely slated for the ax, but the big question is when and how.

President Lyndon B. Johnson is trying hard to high pressure the stormily-controversial bank regulator into "resigning." But so far without results.

Saxon is standing pat, and flatly refusing to quit "under fire."

Under the National Banking Act, Saxon can be axed — on one condition.

THIS IS AN unusual provision that requires the president to officially explain to Congress why the comptroller of the currency is being ousted before the expiration of his five-year term. Saxon, appointed by President John F. Kennedy in November, 1961, has more than 18 months to serve.

For some still unclear reason, President Johnson apparently is reluctant to dismiss him—much as he wants to get rid of him.

Instead, the heat is being put on Saxon to voluntarily depart.

White House aides, administration officials, congressional leaders and others are putting out the word the president strongly disapproves of Saxon, wants to replace him and, if he doesn't leave on his own volition, will bluntly remove him.

So far, this barrage of backstage hints has been shrugged off by Saxon. How long he will be able to withstand this potent squeeze is a toss-up.

INDICATIONS POINT to rough weather ahead for the former Chicago banker.

The Senate Investigating Committee, which already has made headlines with jarring diclosures concerning the affairs of several insolvent Western banks, is credited with preparing to uncork more such revelations.

On the House side, Rep. Wright Patman, D-Tex., chairman of the banking committee, is set to launch still another probe of Saxon's activities.

President Johnson's disapproval of the turbulent comptroller of the currency is not new.

Last fall Johnson indirectly attempted to crack down on Saxon.

Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon was directed to sternly notify Saxon that he was to "cooperate" with other government agencies, particularly the Federal Reserve and Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. For months he had been acrimoniously feuding with them.

The president's letter on this to Dillon was so emphatic that most treasury officials viewed it as the prelude to Saxon's ouster.

But nothing happened, and Saxon continued his acrid wrangling.

Next the president slapped at him through Budget Director Kermit Gordon. He was instructed to firmly warn the currency comptroller against taking public and private potshots at White House fiscal and banking policies.

Saxon subsided for a time. But after a while he began criticizing again—much to the president's resentment.

The scrappy currency comptroller has a long list of weighty antagonists. He has clashed with Federal Reserve Chairman William McChesney Martin, Joseph Barr, head of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., various Justice Department officials, the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Independent Bankers Assn., and others.

General Thatcher Was Too Sick To Visit Base–But He Is Due

A headline in last Friday's Intercept, the Hamilton Air Force Base paper, announced: "Gen. Thatcher Visits Hamilton."

The story goes on to describe in detail how Lt. Gen. Herbert B. Thatcher, commander of the Air Defense Command, arrived at Hamilton and presented the Legion of Merit Award to Brig. Gen. Carroll W. McColpin, who will be the new commander of the 28th air division next Friday.

GENERAL THATCHER also presented awards to Hamilton's representatives in the 1964 Olympics, S/Sgt. Jake Highland and A/1C Bob Christopherson.

The only thing wrong with this story is that General Thatcher did not visit Hamilton nor did he present the three awards which the paper said he did.

He was also supposed to attend the luncheon for General Necrason at Peacock Gap Country Club. He didn't show up there either.

In fact, he was so sick at Colorado Springs that he couldn't make the trip.

THE BASE NEWSPAPER goes to press late Thursday and the lead story was written before it was scheduled to happen. The only thing wrong with this is that those who were responsible for it failed to kill the story and substitute another for it.

General Thatcher is again scheduled to come to Hamilton for the change of command ceremonies Friday afternoon. If he gets here, he is scheduled to make the awards which he failed to make last Thursday.

AFTER I WROTE that all cats should be licensed and made to obey the leash laws, I was prepared for howls louder than the cats at night to come from the cat lovers of Marin County. I was braced for the onslaught which I knew would surely follow such an utterance.

Either the cat lovers did not take me seriously, or they realized that they were helplessly outnumbered by their opponents and felt that they should let sleeping dogs be licensed and penned up.

I received many comments on that article and, without a single exception, they all favored a leash law for cats.

Lawmakers, take note.

MARIN COUNTY and the cities in the county are following Novato's example of starting to put all utility wires underground. This was not done lightly or without a lot of talk. Many thousands of words were said in the hearings that preceded that action. The issue was debated from all sides at several public hearings and council meetings.

We don't remember it, but once the same arguments probably were used when cities wanted water and gas mains placed underground. We have been in primitive countries where they were so glad to start up the road to modern civilization that they allowed water and gas mains to be placed on the surface, just as long as they received the service.

Finally, after much argument, these mains were placed underground. The cities are now at the same stage of development for electricity and telephone cables.

In all the talk at the Novato council meetings on the subject, councilman William Jack Adams made this sage observation:

"Burying the wires is the up coming thing."

MORRIE RYSKIND

Don't Chastize Chet Huntley For One Conservative Phrase

I RISE TO PROTEST against some criticisms I have heard recently. For I think it is one thing to condemn a hardened criminal, but another to doom a hitherto respectable citizen who makes a single, if blatant, misstep.

But if I plead for a little compassion, it is not for myself, for I have no alibis for my sinful path. I was properly brought up and taught early the Biblical precept that the way of the transgressor is—and should be—hard. When I became a dropout from the Democratic Party (with which I was registered) in 1940 and joined up with evil Republican companions, it was a deliberate choice and I realized fully that from then on I might have to live as a fugitive, pursued even more relentlessly than David Janssen.

But the purveyor of heroin is far more guilty than the dupes he has pushed his product on. And it is manifestly unfair to include men like Harry Truman and Chet Huntley in the same category with me just because they have innocently embraced one of the many infamous tenets I have espoused in my specious arguments.

I READILY concede—what have I got to lose?—that anyone who questions for a moment the utter sanctity and infinite wisdom of Martin Luther King or the value of the non-violent demonstrations, sit-ins, lie-downs, forced marches and riots fostered in his name is a racist who secretly yearns for the return of slavery. Indeed, I have almost 200 letters from liberals in the mainstream of American thought stressing that very point.

And I realize it's on the record that Mr. Truman finds the 50-mile marchers to Montgomery "silly." "They can't accomplish a darned thing," he said. "All they want is to attract attention."

Yet is that any reason to read him out of the liberal movement? Is one failure to conform enough to wipe out a lifetime of party loyalty that included even fealty to a notorious Missouri boss? Isn't the fact that—but wait a minute, what am I getting excited about? Since when isn't H. S. T. able to speak for himself?

The man who routed a Jimmy Roosevelt intent on denying his nomination in 1948 and went on to beat the brains out of a "do-nothing Congress" and make mincemeat out of the pollsters doesn't need me. He can handle himself without a public defender.

Still, take your pound of flesh if you must. But by all that's holy spare Chet Huntley—or your name will go down with Attila the Hun. Can you imagine the Great Society without him? On practically every subject known to man he has forthleftly taken the liberal side—and I defy my opponents to say otherwise.

True, he recently said — I heard him, I confess — that the United Nations was a flop and that it had turned into a mockery when we gave the newly emerging countries the same vote we had. But again, is one moment of blasphemy to outweigh a lifetime of blind obedience? Didn't Job have his doubts? Didn't "Soapy" Williams throw a conniption fit when L. B. J. was given the vice presidential nomination in 1960? Will you forgive Job and Soapy and harden your heart to Chet?

I KNOW the pressures, social and cultural, on you. I, too, saw the "Mr. Novak" episode (ironically, on the same network that features Chet) in which a typical U. N. critic was rightfully depicted as a venal scoundrel possessed of every cardinal sin known to man—and I would be the last to deny the validity of that portrait. Especially when it is attested to by the National Education Assn., which acts as "consultant" on this morality play.

Yet I ask you to search your hearts and give Chet one more chance. And, if nothing else moves you, who will there be to say good night to David?

Murder Suspect Not Capable Of Defense At Trial

Murder suspect J. D. Jones, 30, was ordered to Atascadero State Hospital for an indeterminate period yesterday by Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court on sanity findings that he is incapable of conducting his defense in trial.

Jones, 79 Cole Drive, Marin City, allegedly killed his ex-wife, Mary L., with a hammer last Oct. 20 following an argument over custody of their son, James Davis Jones, Jr., aged 3.

Trial originally was scheduled last Jan. 26, but was delayed with sanity hearings. Psychiatrists testified earlier that Jones became "clinically psychotic," has declared he "talked with God," and no longer feels responsibility in the attack.

Sailor Is Member Of Recovery Force

John R. Knight, son of Mrs. Jeanne Knight of 4 Ranch Lane, Larkspur, was a member of the recovery force during the first manned Gemini flight Tuesday.

Knight, a fire control technician second class, is a crewmember aboard the guided missile cruiser Boston, one of 20 vessels assigned to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration project.

Baptist Students In Ballot Tests

James B. Orrell and Charles W. Tankersley are competing for votes for student president at Golden Gate Baptist Seminary. Election will be April 6.

Orrell, from Eugene, Ore., is a graduate of University of Oregon. Tankersley's home is Midland, Tex. He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University.

Glen Saul of Plainview, Tex., now student president, is running unopposed for first vice president. Other candidates, unopposed, are Gary E. Collins, Burbank, for second vice president; Ramona J. Rainey, Los Gatos, for secretary; Janice Jackson, Lesage, W. Va., for treasurer.

President of the Sausalito Foundation is Jack R. Wagner.

License Suspended

The off-sale general liquor license of Amordel Enterprises Inc. of 653 East Blithedale Avenue, Mill Valley, will be suspended for 10 days, effective April 13, by the state department of alcoholic beverage control. The suspension was ordered on charges of sale of alcoholic beverages to a minor.

WINNING BRIDGE

College Students Learn Advantages of Patience

We all have to learn the difference between patience and mere procrastination, and thousands of college students got a lesson of this kind a few weeks ago during the annual Intercollegiate Bridge Tournament.

The instruction came from a hand constructed for the tournament by William Root and Lawrence Rosler.

Opening lead — ♣ K

South's opening bid of one notrump is recommended by most experts despite the weakness in clubs.

HIGH CARDS

North, with 10 points in high cards, wants to reach game since he knows that the combined count must be 26 to 28 points.

North's response of two clubs, the Stayman Convention, asks South to show a four-card major suit if he has one. South obediently bids his spades, and North happily raises to game in spades.

If South could not bid spades, North would raise to game in notrump.

MISSING TRUMPS

Game in spades would be a cinch if the five missing trumps broke 3-2 or if the defense were weak. Game at notrump is out of the question since the defenders would take four clubs and the ace of spades.

West leads the king of clubs and continues the suit, forcing South to ruff the third round.

South leads the queen of spades, and East must patiently refuse that trick and also the next when South leads the jack of spades.

MUST POUNCE

South continues with the 10 of spades, and East must pounce on the trick with his ace. The time for action has come at last. East returns his last club, and dummy must ruff.

East's six of spades is the only trump left, and it takes the setting trick.

If East took his ace of spades earlier, South would made the contract by ruffing a club return with one of his own trumps, and East would never get a second trump trick.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one notrump, and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ A 6 5 3
♥ 10 8 2
♦ 5 3
♣ 9 8 7 2

What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

Partner shows 16 to 18 points, and you have 4 points, indicating that the combined count is only 22 points at most. Since this is not enough for game you pass at the first reasonable part-score contract.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, March 30, the 89th day of 1965 with 276 days to follow.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning star is Mars. The evening stars are Mars, Jupiter and Mercury.

Vincent Van Gogh, the post impressionist painter, was born on this day in 1853.

In 1867, the U. S. agreed to purchase Alaska from Russia for $7.2 million.

In 1870, the 15th Amendment to the Constitution was adopted. It said "The right of citizens of the U. S. to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Also in 1870, Texas was readmitted to the Union.

In 1945, Russian troops invaded Austria, forcing the retreat of Nazi soldiers on all fronts.

A thought for the day — Abraham Lincoln once said: "As I would not be a slave, so I would not be a master. This expresses my idea of democracy. Whatever differs from this, to the extent of the difference, is no democracy."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Light-face type indicates a.m. times; bold-face type indicates p.m. times.

When a Family Buys A Home in Central Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 69.7% of home buyers in Central Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 3½ to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	69.7
San Francisco	19.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

When a Family Buys A Home in Northern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest research* shows that 71.9% of home buyers in Northern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of almost 5 to 1 MORE than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	71.9
San Francisco	14.6

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

*SOURCE: "A Survey on the Origins of Home Buyers in Marin County," conducted by the Marin County Abstract and Title Company.

When a Family Buys A Home in Southern Marin . . . Where Do They Come From?

Latest Research* shows that 65.9% of home buyers in Southern Marin are ALREADY LIVING in the County.

This is a ratio of MORE THAN 2 to 1 than from San Francisco.

BUYER ORIGIN	%
Marin County	65.9
San Francisco	31.9

- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves because the I-J covers 2 out of 3 homes in the County.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED!!
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

NOTICE OF IMPROVEMENT SAN RAFAEL CAYES

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on the 15th day of March, 1965, the City Council of the City of San Rafael, California, adopted its Resolution of Intention No. 3204, wherein it did declare that in its opinion the public interest and convenience required, and that it was the intention of said Council to order the acquisition of the improvements in and for said City as hereinafter described.

All of said work and improvements have been constructed at the places and in the particular locations, of the forms, sizes, dimensions and materials, and at the lines, grades and elevations shown and delineated on the plans, profiles and specifications preliminarily approved therefor by the City Council of said City and on file for public inspection in the office of the City Clerk.

Notice is hereby given of the fact that in many cases said work and improvement has brought the finished surface of the ground to a grade different from that formerly existing, and that to said extent said grades are hereby changed and that said work has been done to said changed grades.

The descriptions of the improvements to be acquired and the termini of the work contained in the Resolution of Intention are general in nature. All items of work do not necessarily extend for the full length of the description thereof. The plans and profiles of the work and maps and descriptions, as contained in the Engineer's report, shall be controlling as to the correct and detailed description thereof.

Reference is hereby made to proceedings had pursuant to Division 4 of the Streets and Highways Code, on file in the office of the City Clerk.

The improvements to be acquired are more particularly described as follows:

(a) The reclamation of the lands within the proposed assessment district as described in Section 14 hereof, with a levee and embankment along the northerly, easterly and southerly boundaries of the properties thereof, consisting of mud fill and rip-rap, together with appurtenant drainage structures, and mud dike within the area outside of San Rafael Cayes Unit 1 to form a drainage lagoon.

(b) Mud and sand street fill under East Canal Street from its present easterly terminus southeasterly to the easterly boundary of San Rafael Cayes, Unit 1, Catalina Boulevard from Canal Street to the southerly boundary of San Rafael Cayes, Unit 1, Newport Boulevard from Canal Street to the northerly boundary of San Rafael Cayes, Unit 1, and Newport Way for its entire length.

(c) Grading, base pavement and wearing surface, curbs, gutters, sidewalks; sanitary sewer mains, manholes, wye branches, laterals, cleanouts and appurtenances; storm drain pipes, protection grates, inlet structures, manholes, catch basins, end sections, and appurtenances; rights of service and use in water mains, valves, hydrants, services and appurtenances; street signs, street monuments, street barricades, street electroliers; rights of service and use in underground electrical and telephone facilities in all of said streets and in public easements within said Tract; a storm water pump station; a sanitary sewage pumping station and force main to the sewage treatment plant of the San Rafael Sanitation District; a sewage ejector station; and access roads.

(d) The acquisition of rights and service and the construction of all improvements auxiliary to any of the above and necessary to complete the same.

Said contemplated acquisitions, in the opinion of said Council, are of more than local or ordinary public benefit; and the costs and expenses thereof are made chargeable upon an assessment district, the exterior boundaries of which are delineated on a map thereof entitled "Assessment Diagram, San Rafael Cayes Improvement District No. One", on file in the office of the City Clerk, which indicates by a boundary line the extent of the territory included in the proposed district and shall govern for all details as to the extent of the assessment district.

Notice is hereby given that serial bonds to represent unpaid assessments and bear interest at the rate of not to exceed 6% per annum, will be issued hereunder in the manner provided by Division 7 of the Streets and Highways Code, the Improvement Act of 1911, and the last installment of such bonds shall mature not to exceed fourteen (14) years from the second day of January next succeeding the next September 1st following their date. Said bonds shall be made payable to bearer and provide a premium of 5% of the unmatured principal thereof on call.

Except as herein otherwise provided for the issuance of bonds, all of said acquisitions shall be done pursuant to the Municipal Improvement Act of 1913.

Notice is further given that the Engineer of Work, pursuant to said Act and said Resolution of Intention adopted pursuant thereto, did, on the 15th day of March, 1965, file with the City Clerk his report in writing on said acquisitions, consisting of description of work, plans, estimate of costs and incidental expenses, diagram and assessment, and maps and descriptions, and said Council did on said date consider and examine said report and by resolution preliminarily approved and confirmed same and ordered that said report stand as the report for the purpose of all subsequent proceedings had pursuant to said Resolution of Intention.

The estimated cost of said project is $848,954.00.

Notice is further given that the City Council proposes to enter into agreements with Pacific Gas and Electric Company and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, which agreements will provide, among other things, for the supplying by the public utilities of plans and specifications for the proposed electrical distribution and telephone distribution facilities, for the performance of the work by said utilities of installing said electrical and telephone distribution systems, for the posting of labor, material and performance bonds by said utilities in connection with the performance of said work, for the ownership upon their completion of said electrical and telephone distribution facilities by said utilities, and for the providing of service to applicants therefor in said assessment district in accordance with the rates, rules and regulations now or hereafter established by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California, and that said agreements shall become effective after proceedings have been taken for the levy of the assessments and sale of bonds and funds are available to carry out their terms.

Notice is further given that the Council proposes to assess the expenses of maintaining and operating the levee, dike, lagoon and all appurtenances, including the cost of necessary repairs, replacements, fuel, power, electric current, care, supervision and any and all other items necessary for the proper maintenance and operation thereof, wholly upon the real property within the proposed assessment district, and to order the formation of the San Rafael Cayes Drainage Maintenance District.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that Monday, the 19th day of April, 1965, at the hour of 8:00 o'clock P. M., in the regular meeting place of said Council, Council Chambers, City Hall, San Rafael, California, are the time and place appointed and fixed by said Council when and where it will consider and finally act upon the Engineer's report filed pursuant to said Resolution of Intention, and when and where it will hear all protests in relation to said proposed acquisitions, or to the grades at which said work has been done, or the extent of the assessment district, or to the proposed diagram and assessment, or to the maps and descriptions, or to the agreements proposed to be entered into by the City with the Pacific Gas and Electric Company and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, or to the Engineer's estimate of the costs and expenses thereof, or to the formation of the proposed drainage maintenance district, and that any person interested may file a written protest with the City Clerk at or before the time set for the hearing referred to herein.

Reference is hereby made to said Resolution of Intention and report, including plans, description of work, estimate of costs and incidental expenses, diagram and assessment, and maps and descriptions, for a more particular description of said acquisitions to be had and done, and for further particulars, all on file in the office of the City Clerk.

Global Need For Forest Products Rising Rapidly

By ARTHUR FLETCHER

UNITED NATIONS (WPS) — The global need for forest products is rising more rapidly than even the much-publicized global need for more food.

Forest industries are a $40 billion a year business, and the search for more efficient and complete use of trees is already opening up new economic vistas.

Among these, according to Food and Agriculture Organization, is the belief that eventually man's needs for forest products, especially for paper, will be best met from man-made forests. This means planting specific trees for specific uses rather than depending on the chance of nature.

A possible interim solution, for coping with the increasing distance of forests from production centers, is the use of pipelines.

This proposal has just been presented to an FAO conference in Cairo on paper-making in Africa and the Near East. Delegates from 35 countries were told that an eight-inch pipeline could deliver 800 tons of wood chips a day—enough to sustain a large newsprint mill.

Canadian experiments on pipelines with transparent sections, that made observation possible, indicate the feasibility of such an approach to solving the wood transport problem.

More spectacular, but still untested, are proposals for fitting such pipelines with a series of towers and tanks so that the traveling timber chips could be subjected to the same fluids and chemicals used in pulping wood for paper-making. Under this process, chips fed into the pipeline in the forest could arrive at their destination as wood pulp ready to be fed into paper-making machinery.

This kind of technological ingenuity is inspired by the population increase, improved standards of living, rising literacy and expanding educational programs—all of which are spurring demands for more paper, better housing, etc.

Another factor is the imbalance in the forest-wood economies of many countries. Ceylon, for example, though heavily forested in one part of the island, imports wood to make tea chests.

All these factors are combining to reshape the world's supply and demand pattern for forest products during the next decade.

Studies by FAO and the UN's regional economic commissions suggest that by 1975 the developing countries will need some $3 billion per year more forest products than they had in 1961.

That is $3 billion above their own production and their imports from the developed countries—valued at $500 million.

The expert view is that this need will not be met. What is believed a realistic prospect is that the developing countries may cover their own needs except for pulp and paper. But making the investment to bring about such an expansion would probably enable them to sell an additional $1 billion per year in forest products to the industrialized countries, which is possibly more important to their economic future.

That would be a pretty fancy yield on the $5 billion in investment the experts specify. It would also set off a progressive rise in net export earnings beyond 1975. Such earnings are forecast because European forests are approaching maximum economic yields. U. S. forestry imports will also rise in the next several decades.

Statistically, the world's untapped forests are adequate to meet foreseeable needs. But progress in utilizing the heterogeneous tropical forest has been slow, and that fact underlies the prediction that man-made forest will eventually become the dynamic element in the forest products field.

International support for efforts to bring about sound forest and forest industries management has expanded greatly in recent years. The U.N. Special Fund, the U.N.'s pre-investment service operated on voluntary contributions, has already launched 36 projects in forestry development. The FAO is the executing agent in each case. Funds so channeled to the FAO have boosted its professional forestry personnel from 44 to 388.

In addition, five new projects were approved at the recent session of the Special Fund's Governing Council. This indicates a policy-making emphasis on bringing about a coherent, overall approach to the use of forest resources and the need for trained personnel to implement it.

Nationalist China, Costa Rica and the Philippines will get surveys to serve as the basis for planning and encouraging sound forest management and forest industries.

In Colombia and Mexico the U. N. aid will be to forest institutes which will train forest managers and researchers in forest and forest industry problems.

On this latter point, Dr. H. L. Shirley, chairman of the FAO's Advisory Committee on Forestry Education and dean of the State University College of Forestry at Syracuse University in New York, says that training personnel adequate to the job may be pivotal for economic and political evolution of a number of countries.

"A heavy responsibility, therefore, rests on forest officers in such nations to provide public understanding of the importance of forests and to develop public support for necessary legal and administrative measures to ensure sound management of forests," he says, adding:

"It is necessary for foresters, especially those in senior positions, to have an education comparable with that of lawyers, public health officials and others with whom they must associate and compete for public attention and funds."

City Council Cleans Out Ancient Rules

PULLMAN, Wash. (UPI) — The Pullman city council, engaged in updating city ordinances, voted to repeal a law which made it illegal for minors to bowl.

Also repealed was an 1891 measure prohibiting any minor under 16 "to loaf, lung or idle his time in any place of business in the city of Pullman."

Heavy Heart Toll

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Thirteen San Franciscans died every 24 hours from heart disease last year, according to the Heart Assn.

Air Force Man Has Terrific Record

SCOTT AIR FORCE BASE, Ill. (UPI) — Major William H. Wood has flown more than 20,000 hours without an accident. An air force spokesman said that involves "a phenomenal safety milestone."

Wood is chief of aircrew standardardization, 11th Aeromedical Transport Squadron at the base here near Belleville, Ill. During his flying time, the major, a C-118 aircraft commander, flew approximately four million miles or the equavalent of nearly 200 times around the earth's equator.

German Telegraphs Spurn Modern Art

BONN (UPI) — Telegrams which include a print of a famous artist's work are being made available to West Germans, the Postal Ministry has announced.

The works of artists still living will not be reproduced in telegrams, said State Secretary Hans Steinmetz, because none of them are doing anything suitable.

Kilroy Was There, As Any Veteran Knows

HOUSTON (UPI) — Dr. Charles L. Dranke, oceanographer for the Lamont Geological Laboratory at Columbia University, paid a visit to Rice University recently and told of the first efforts to scan the bottom of the sea.

"It was frustrating," he said. "The first thing we saw down there was a beer bottle."

Name Has Romance

HARWICH, Mass. (UPI) — This Cape Cod town's annual meeting has rejected a proposal to change the name of Lover's Lane to Homestead Lane.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Spastic Colitis Is Common Trouble Often Caused When Patient Nervous

VAN DELLEN

Spastic colitis is a common condition and a week rarely passes in the life of a busy physician without encountering one or more patients with this disorder. It is a nervous phenomenon producing intestinal spasms.

Abdominal soreness, gas pains, and cramping are the most troublesome manifestations.

In some instances, bouts of distress are associated with diarrhea; in others, there is constipation. Now and then the pain is so sharp the victim holds the abdomen and bends forward trying to obtain relief.

CRAMPING MAY occur only during a trying situation, a period of anxiety, or sustained tension. Other patients never are comfortable and remain aware that all is not well within the tummy.

Symptoms are far from imaginary, as they are caused by a forceful contraction of the muscular wall of the colon. This occasionally can be demonstrated via an X-ray, provided the muscle is in a state of spasm when the film is made.

KNOWING THE cause helps to control the disturbance. In some, assurance that nothing serious exists is enough to relax the sufferer and his bowel. The solution is easy when the source of trouble is obvious. A Chicago surgeon closes his office and leaves the city to paint and relax when he begins to develop abdominal pain.

This is the signal that he is working too hard and is tense and tired. The cause may be a social or economic crisis, fear of disease, lack of security, or problems with a spouse or child. Irregular eating habits, laxative abuses, and too much coffee, alcohol, or cokes may play a role.

THERE ARE several medicines that are useful in calming the individual and relaxing the bowel. A combination of belladonna and phenobarbital is time-honored. Tranquilizers also are useful.

Drugs that divorce the bowel from the brain are most successful in relaxing spasm. There are dozens of these on the market and the majority are prescription products. A bland diet gives the bowel a rest.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CLANKING NECK

Mrs. E. C. writes: For the last year, whenever I shake my head up, down, or sideways, I hear a metallic click. This does not pain me but I am annoyed by the mysterious sound. Did you ever hear of such a condition?

REPLY

This sound comes from clicking vertebras or scarred muscle and fibrous tissue in the neck. Arthritis or injury to the structures in this area is responsible. Send stamped, self-addressed envelope for leaflet on neck exercises.

EAR FLUID

Mrs. F. writes: Why does fluid collect in the middle and inner ear?

REPLY

Pus collects when the ear is infected, whereas serum accumulates if the eustachian canal is obstructed.

OTHER USES OF INSULIN

Mrs. N. writes: Is insulin given for anything besides diabetes?

REPLY

Yes—to stimulate appetite and produce shock in certain mental conditions.

LIVER

R. W. writes: Where is the liver located?

REPLY

Just opposite the lower ribs to the right of the midline.

ANKYLOSIS

H. T. writes: What is ankylosis?

REPLY

Stiffness of a joint.

Today's Health Hint—Careful shampooing helps combat dandruff.

DEATH AND TAXES

News In Space Age Has Familiar Ring

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Items from a space age newspaper in the year 2965:

United Nations — Zurbra the 19th, hereditary ruler of the soar system, announced that the graduated income tax would be raised from 97 per cent to 98 per cent for all families making more than $1 million yearly.

Estimating that the tax would affect 80 per cent of the population, Zubra said:

"If business conditions continue to improve, we confidently look for a balanced government budget within the next generation or so."

Moscow—A nationwide celebration was held for all Russians who had passed their 500th birthday.

Miami Beach — A new 12,675-story hotel has been erected on the beachfront here from the top of which the ocean is visible on clear days.

It is believed to be the tallest building ever constructed of glass wool. Suites will range from $5,000 to $7,500 a day, including an optional breakfast.

Washington — Research scientists at the U.S. Public Health Service say they are near a breakthrough in their search for a cure for the common cold.

Forty wonder drugs developed in the past century for the same purpose have been abandoned after thorough testing.

Los Angeles — Workmen excavating the ruins of a Chinese theater in an ancient village known as Hollywood have come across the cement footsteps of a vanished number of idols known as movie stars.

Historians say these demigods, who were worshiped by a race of illiterate natives with an average mentality of 12 years, disappeared centuries ago with the spread of universal education.

Peking — Widespread sit-in strikes mushroomed throughout China as six billion workers increased their demands for a one-hour work week and a 40-week vacation, benefits long enjoyed by the rest of the world.

Corncob, Neb. — Mr. and Mrs. X16 Y237 Z45-0008 returned from a six-month honeymoon trip to Mars with a fine greenish tan.

"We averaged better than 165,000 miles to an ounce of uranium in our new million-horsepower space cruiser," said the husband proudly. "Mars is a nice place to visit — but I sure would hate to live there. Give me good old Corncob every time!"

Washington — J. Edgar H34 6789, head of the Department of Investigation, sternly warned that a wave of juvenile delinquency was sweeping the country.

"A space ship is being stolen every second," he said, "and in eight out of ten cases the culprit is under 99 years of age.

"These aren't just joyriding kids — they're hardened criminals. Unless they are dealt with firmly we face a collapse of law enforcement. Their youth is no excuse."

Candidates Sharing Same-Name Benefits

FRAMINGHAM, Mass (UPI) — Bob Ross of Framingham and Bob Ross of Hudson, candidates for selectman in their respective communities, are helping each other campaign.

Famingham Bob is a Boston stock broker while Hudson Bob is a college maintenance superintendent. They didn't know each other until Hudson Bob spotted Framingham Bob's station wagon bearing a sign, "Bob Ross for Selectman."

Consistent Mother

ST. LOUIS (UPI) — Gill, a great Dane owned by Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Berger, accounted for 26 pups in two litters — 13 last year, the same number this year.

Roadside Council Drive Under Way

Marin County chairman for California Roadside Council's statewide membership drive this week is Mrs. T. J. Donnelly of 125 Calumet Avenue, San Anselmo, with Roy Starbird of 220 West Street, Sausalito, serving on the local committee.

William D. Evers, president, said the council is aiming for 500 new members.

Arend L. Horstmeyer Jr. is president of the Greenbrae Property Owners Assn., with Col. Robert S. Nourse as vice president.

Flower Show Aides

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm G. Smith of 160 Marina Vista, Larkspur, have been named designers for the 1965 rhododendron and azalea show to be held April 24 and 25 at the Piedmont Community Hall, Piedmont. Other Marin County members on committees for the show are Dr. Frederick W. Coe of Ross and F. W. Mosher Jr. of Tamalpais Valley.

President of the Marin Coin Club is Jack V. Repp, with Glenn H. Murray as vice president.

Dobbs Proposes Staff Prepare Master Plan

Marin County Planning Director B. D. Dobbs will recommend that his own staff prepare a master plan of Marin County with a target for completion in 1970.

Dobbs has already included the proposal in his budget request for the next fiscal year. However, the planning commission is still to discuss the idea and make a recommendation to the board of supervisors.

Dobbs said having outside consultants do the job would cost more and the plan would still not be completed until 1968 at the earliest. Even then it might not be something in which the board of supervisors would have confidence, he said.

In using county staff for the plan, Dobbs believes money will be saved even though Federal assistance up to one-third of the cost will be missed by not getting outside consultants.

The one-third assistance could still be possible if a separate master plan department were created in the planning department where the staff did nothing but work on the master plan, but Dobbs said he did not think this necessary.

Prison Honor System Urged

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach proposed to Congress yesterday that selected federal prisoners be allowed to take outside jobs before their sentences are up.

The honor system plan would represent an extension to adult prisoner of the rehabilitation concept which, up to now, has been limited to youthful offenders in a few areas.

Katzenbach outlined his proposals in letters to the House and Senate accompanying the draft of a bill.

Cancer Crusade Aide Is Named

Mrs. Joseph Mouille of 826 Wilmac Avenue, Novato, has been named to head the annual cancer crusade drive for the Novato unit of the American Cancer Society on April 19 and 20.

More than 300 volunteers are needed to make a house to house canvass to raise the $3,400 goal set for the drive, Mrs. Mouille said.

Owen Merritt is president of the Sleepy Hollow Homes Assn.

Veterans' Assessment Deadline Set

Marin County veterans have until 5 p.m. May 3 to file requests for tax exemption assessment reduction in the county assessor's office at the Civic Center.

Veterans whose property is assessed at less than $5,000 are eligible for exemption of $1,000 in assessed value from the tax rolls, according to Herschel W. Johnson, assistant county assessor.

Veterans with property assessed at more than $5,000 are not eligible and are subjecting themselves to possible criminal prosecution if they seek exemption, he said.

Candidate Night Set Thursday

Condidates for West Marin and Tomales High School District boards will speak at a candidates' night meeting at West Marin School at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The Independent-Journal erroneously reported yesterday that the meeting was scheduled for last night.

Candidates for three vacancies on the West Marin board are incumbent Robert E. Gallagher, and challengers George McCartney Johnston, Mrs. Megan M. Mery and Joseph F. Joyce.

Candidates for the high school district board are incumbent Roy A. Parks and challengers, Gordon W. Pusser, Jean E. Adams and N. Louise Passalacqua.

Congo Voting Is Postponed

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP) — After two days of chaos, the Congolese government today postponed voting in Leopoldville "until a later date."

Only a few thousand of the Congolese capital's nearly half a million electors were able to vote in the first national elections since independence in 1960. An administrative mess kept the rest standing in the steaming hot sun Sunday and yesterday.

Several election officials were arrested and accused of maladministration.

Oceanography Film, Lecture At College

Skin Diver Geza de Rosner will show a film, "Wonder of the Deep," and lecture on oceanography at noon and 8 p.m. April 8 at Olney Hall, College of Marin.

The film will show underwater animals, including antics of friendly fish and activity of sharks, and demonstrate plants on underwater valleys and mountains. The lecture is part of a series sponsored by the students and the San Francisco Explorers' Club.

Dance Night Slated For Senior Citizens

Enjoying themselves next Friday at the San Rafael Recreation Center, 37 Union Street, will be the over-50 citizens of the area keen on dancing the night away tango-style.

All senior residents are invited to the "big dance night" from 7 to 10 p.m., said Recreation Director Joseph D. Rodota. An instructor from the Arthur Murray Dance Studio, San Rafael, will give lessons for the first hour in cha cha, swing, tango, waltz and fox trot. Refreshments, contests and prizes are planned.

Gets School Post

Julie Hastings has been named chairman of a newly formed welcome committee at Terra Linda High School, formed to welcome and assist students who are new to the school.

City Council Candidate Learns Needs

Filippo Makes House-To-House San Rafael Survey

San Rafael residents are most concerned about their taxes, and are concerned also about planning, parking and traffic, according to a city council candidate who has been making door-to-door calls in his campaign.

Joseph R. Filippo, one of four candidates for two city council seats at stake April 12, today reported on a personal survey which he said has taken him to nearly 1,000 homes in the past two weeks.

MARIN STORY

"People are concerned about the continued rise in their tax bill," he said. "Efforts must be made, not to reduce the rate two cents, but to reduce the tax bill by putting economy and efficiency in city and county government. Assessments go up and tax rates down, and people are paying more taxes. This is the Marin story."

Filippo said he finds residents want the city to "update the master plan and stop flagrant spot zoning." (San Rafael has no master plan in effect now; a proposed one was returned to the planning commission for elimination of tideland areas and other revisions.)

Filippo said he found favor for hiring senior citizens to man municipal parking lots instead of having them metered — a scheme just instituted by Sausalito on its one municipal lot.

He summed up concern over parking by saying people insist that "adequate traffic patterns must assure people easy access to downtown San Rafael."

FIRE STATION

Each section of the city has its own particular concern, Filippo said. Terra Linda wants its own police precinct house. Glenwood wants a fire station (the city has a site for a Glenwood fire station, but has not yet budgeted money for construction; it is proposed for inclusion in the fiscal 1966 budget). Glenwood residents also are worried about the bay fill portion of the general plan. Bret Harte residents are concerned with traffic and floods; those in Loch Lomond, with San Pedro Road traffic.

Filippo said the survey was made in belief "that people must express their views to a candidate so that the services of city government can be used for the best interest of the people."

He also announced heads of committees working for his candidacy, including: Michael J. Scotto, chairman; George E. Oliver and Mervin Verran, finance; Mrs. Beck Abel and Mrs. Mary Brustaori, women; William O. Weissich, lawyers; Norman B. Campbell and N. C. Green, labor. Robert D. Weinmann is campaign manager.

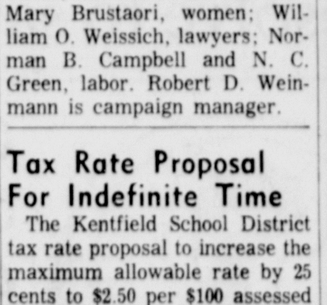

Tax Rate Proposal For Indefinite Time

The Kentfield School District tax rate proposal to increase the maximum allowable rate by 25 cents to $2.50 per $100 assessed valuation on the April 20 ballot, is for an indefinite period, according to Dist. Supt. Howard Harmon.

In a story published March 25, the Independent-Journal erroneously said the tax rate increase proposal was for three years only.

New Comedy Programs Joyless, Gimmicky Shows

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Perhaps you have heard, one way or another, that NBC-TV is currently planning to present next season a weekly half-hour comedy series entitled "My Mother, The Car." Well, first of all, what you have heard is true.

Perhaps, also, pondering on your information, you have suddenly jumped up in the middle of the night and wondered, in a cold sweat, "Pray tell, what could such a title refer to? — What does it all mean?"

Well, I am here today to tell you that the series concerns a young man whose deceased mother suddenly returns to him in the form of a voice that emanates from the radio of a 1928 car that he buys.

Jerry Van Dyke is the son and Ann Sothern the voice, but since our purpose here is not to give them publicity but to explore their vehicle, let us consider a fact that such a series makes supremely clear:

The gentler comedy programs of earlier television years are vanishing quickly, and those that remain might well have been rejected if they were trying to make their debuts in today's market, which is characterized by hit-'em-over-the-head, way-out, witless, joyless, gimmicky shows.

"Father Knows Best" probably would have died trying to break into today's market, and I have strong doubts that even such talents as Danny Thomas and Dick Van Dyke would have survived it, by chance, they had brought their series to the networks as brand new entries this season.

One gentleman associated with "Bachelor Father" even went so far as to admit his series probably wouldn't make it nowdays.

Travel Films Set At College

Two film-lecture programs in the "World Around Us" series will be presented next month at the College of Marin by the Assocaited Students of the College of Marin and the Explorers Club of San Francisco.

Geza de Rosner will narrate his film "Wonders of the Deep" at 11:30 a.m. and 8 p.m. April 8 in Olney Hall at the college.

The premier showing of "Egypt, Gift of the Nile" will be presented at 8 p.m. April 12 in Olney Hall. Producer Ralph J. Franklin will narrate the film featuring ancient tombs and temples in Egypt.

Redwood Musicians Will Play In South

Four music students from Redwood High School will be members of a western states honor band, orchestra, and choir that will play during Easter vacation in Long Beach.

Linda McClure, Wayne Stevens, Chris Brann and Craig Beeson were among students chosen to participate in the concert from all over the state.

Linda and Chris will play in the orchestra, Wayne and Craig in the band.

Redwood Will Host 500 Eighth Graders

Five hundred eighth graders are expected at Orientation Day at Redwood High School on May 5 from 1 to 3 p.m.

Pupils from Neil Cummins, Henry Hall, Marin Country Day, Kentfield, Ross and Del Mar schools will attend to learn about high school.

TAM BALLOT MEASURE

What Happens If Voters Say Yes?

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK
(Second of three articles)

If the Tamalpais High School District area is unified in the April 20 election, the new district will go into effect as soon as trustees are chosen, probably in June. But it will not take over operation of any school until July 1, 1966.

Meanwhile, the 58 trustees of the 12 existing districts will continue to operate as in the past, except that no commitments of funds may be made beyond the changeover date, according to Asst. County Counsel Richard Godino.

The new trustees, as soon as they are seated, may call for a bond election or a tax increase election. They may start to hire persons to work in the new district.

Administrators of the present districts are assured of their present salaries for two years, although their jobs may change. Teachers would continue with the same tenure and no cut in pay for two years also.

One of the purposes of the new state law on unification is to distribute wealth over larger areas. Some districts have much more assessed valuation per child than others, and the state is obliged to provide special funds for the poorer districts.

The present range of assessed valuation per child in the 12 elementary districts within Tam High District ranges from $8,500 in Lagunitas to $58,400 in Bolinas-Stinson. The new district would have about $13,000 in assessed valuation behind each elementary grade student.

Three districts—Sausalito, Nicasio and Bolinas-Stinson — are so wealthy they do not qualify for state aid for their foundation programs.

The new unified district, with about 19,000 students in 1966 and an assessed valuation slightly over 200 million dollars, would qualify. But the present wealthy districts would also be contributing proportionately more to operate the new school system.

The 19,000 enrollment estimate was made by the county schools office.

There are about 25 unified districts in California which are larger. Also, some non-unified elementary and high school districts are larger.

As of December, there were 191 unified districts in the state. Virtually all of those larger than the proposed Tamalpais District are in large cities or their suburbs. The smallest are in rural areas.

Opponents to the unification measure have argued for a smaller district area and note that the Redwood High School attendance area would make a district ranking about 60th largest of the 191.

The State Board of Education has turned down proposals to split the Tamalpais High School District.

Three of the 11 districts—Bolinas-Stinson, Lagunitas and Nicasio—have no kindergartens. They might get them in the new district.

On the other hand, services offered by the county schools office to small school districts, often free of charge, would be eliminated.

These could include health personnel and specialists in speech defects, teaching the blind, and foreign languages.

Although the question of whether to hold a bond election will be up to the new board, the present high school district is on record with the intent of holding a bond election soon, the San Anselmo district is voting on a $700,000 measure April 20, and Mill Valley district is expected to soon ask bond approval. Lagunitas District has a $200,000 bond issue and $300,000 state loan on the April 20 ballot.

(Next: The "bond leveling" question.)

Clausen Asks More Flood Aid

Rep. Don H. Clausen, R-Crescent City, yesterday asked for a supplemental appropriation of $25 million for the Office of Emergency Planning.

The supplemental appropriation would cover added expenses created by Northern California flood devastation and would be in addition to funds budgeted for the agency in the fiscal year starting next July 1.

Congressman Clausen asked for the added appropriation in testimony before the House Independent Appropriations Subcommittee in Washington, D.C.

Penalty Charge Illegal On Time-Pay Contract

Don't be misled by suede shoe operators who sell you a "home improvement" product or service, then charge a "penalty payment" when you decide to cancel the installment contract.

This advice came today from Mrs. Helen Ewing Nelson of Mill Valley, the state's consumer counsel.

"When a consumer attempts to cancel an installment contract—after discovering the contract doesn't match the salesman's fancy promises—the high-pressure outfits tell him falsely that he must pay a cancellation penalty," Mrs. Nelson pointed out.

Such cancellation penalties were outlawed in 1963 by the California Legislature through the Unruh Retail Installment Sales Act, Mrs. Nelson explained. This act applies to installment contracts covering sale of all goods and services except those connected with automobiles.

Planning Talk Session

The Citizens' Advisory Committee on Development of Marin County will hold another planning session at the Civic Center at 8 p.m. Thursday, to prepare for the "Future of Marin" conference.

The conference is slated for June 8 at College of Marin gymnasium. Topics covered will be traffic circulation, urban form and topographical characteristics.

Thursday's session will split into three discussion groups on each of the three topics.

Tiburon Chapter Will Quit State Republican Assembly

The Tiburon Peninsula chapter of the California Republican Assembly, one of four chapters in Marin, plans to bolt from the CRA and join the more moderate California Republican League.

This statement came today from William E. Exline, who headed a four-man delegation of the Tiburon chapter to the state CRA convention in San Diego over the weekend.

Exline said he was concerned "with the total emphasis on a far-right minority" at the San Diego convention and was disappointed with the "emasculation" of a resolution on civil rights.

The state CRA delegates elected Cyril Stevenson Jr. of Berkeley, an ultra conservative, as president of the state organization.

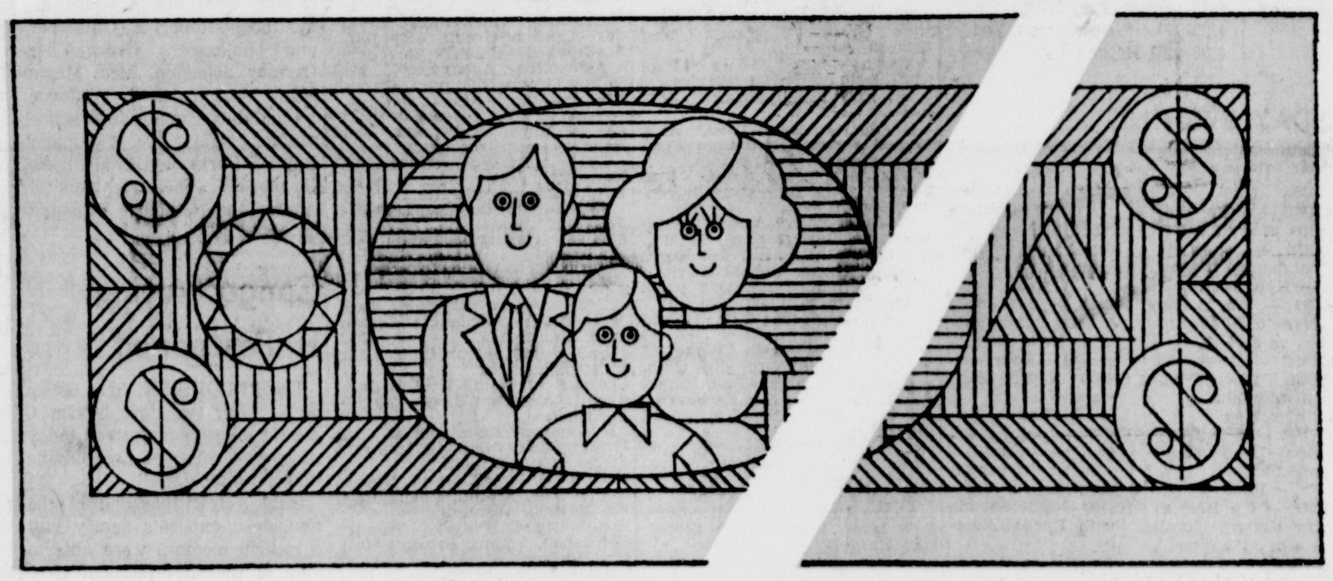

Three other CRA chapters in Marin are in San Rafael, Corte Madera, and Mill Valley.

Robert D. Weinmann of San Rafael is First Congressional District director of CRA.

THE FOOLPROOF WAY TO SAVE

1 Resolve to save a portion of your pay. Decide how much.

2 Open both a checking and a savings account with us. Each payday deposit to your checking account only.

3 At no extra charge, we'll transfer the portion you specified from your checking account to your savings account—automatically.

Will it work? Absolutely. You see, the best way to save is the systematic way. And the Crocker-Citizens "Layaway Plan" is a foolproof system because it's completely automatic. Start using our Layaway Plan first chance you get. And while your savings are growing at Crocker-Citizens, you'll be enjoying these other advantages:

INSTANT INTEREST

Savings start earning daily interest—the instant you make your deposit. Your money doesn't wait around idly for several weeks as it does at some savings institutions. (And remember, we pay "instant interest" at the new maximum bank rate—4% per annum.)

CALIFORNIA'S OLDEST NATIONAL BANK

We've been in business for almost 100 years. That's the reason a Crocker-Citizens checking account carries an extra note of prestige.

MAILWAY BANKING

Turns your corner mailbox into a Crocker-Citizens office. Saves you time, trouble and money. (We pay the postage both ways.)
